Allies Cheer Statement In Paris to NATO Nations

PARIS (AP)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson drew cheers today as he told legislators from Atlantic alliance countries that the United States stands by President Eisenhower's Atlantic policies.

Johnson said the U.S. election in no way was "a repudiation of President Eisenhower's support for the instruments of mutual strength in western Europe."

The tall Texas senator was loudly applauded as he strode into the assembly room of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. His vigorous bi-partisan speech was frequently interrupted by applause of legislators drawn from all over western Europe and Canada.

Johnson made a political tour of the hall, shaking hands all around at the conference's opening session. He strode across the hall to warmly shake hands with French Premier Michel Debre who spoke just before Johnson.

Debre disclaimed any attempt on the part of French President Charles de Gaulle to weaken NATO. On the contrary, Debre said, it was De Gaulle's idea to strengthen NATO by increasing the French "weight" in the organization.

Debre added NATO is needed as much now as at its formation 10 years ago and the "cruel menace" of the Soviet Union is as strong as ever.

Speaking at the opening of the annual parliamentarians conference of the North Atlantic Treaty organization, Johnson made a vigorous partisan appeal for "a new long step toward a richer meaning for freedom."

The Texas senator told 200 assembled legislators from NATO's

Train-Car Crash Kills Couple At Weyauwega

Wreckage Strewn 200 Feet Along Soo Line Tracks

WEYAUWEGA — A Weyauwega couple was killed almost instantly here Sunday night in a car-train collision at Highway 142 and the Soo Line tracks.

Deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Arlyn Preuss and nine others on state highways over the weekend, raised the Wisconsin highway toll to 780, compared with 732 on this date a year ago.

Emil Beier, North Fond du Lac, engineer of the train gave this account of the accident:

Hour Late

The freight train was about an hour late and was traveling east at a normal speed of about 58 miles an hour when he noticed the car traveling north about 125 feet from the crossing.

He blew the whistle but there was no apparent attempt to stop the car. Just before impact, Beier applied the emergency brakes but could not avoid the collision.

Parts of the car were strewn 200 feet along the right-of-way.

Tank in Marsh

Weyauwega Police Chief Kenneth Thompson, who said he had seen the couple only 20 minutes before the crash, said they may have been driving out of town to meet friends.

Mrs. Preuss was thrown 81 feet from the point of impact and Preuss was thrown 59 feet. The car's gasoline tank was found this morning in a marsh near the right-of-way.

Preuss, 31, was employed by Strey Cheese Factory at Weyauwega. Survivors include two sons, James and Gerald, both at home, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Preuss, route 2, Weyauwega, two brothers and three sisters.

Mrs. Preuss, 28, was employed by the Aid Association for Lutherans, Appleton. Survivors include the two sons, her stepmother, Mrs. Gladys Foster, 42, wife of a Beaver Dam clergyman, died of gunfire Sunday.

Oconto County authorities said that Mrs. Foster was killed when the gun held by her husband, the Salm said the accident occurred about 12:30 a.m. For the next five hours he lay in the shattered automobile, bleeding and unable to move. His cries for help went unanswered.

At 5:15 a.m. Cornelius Herr, a farmer living near the wreck scene, saw the battered car and spotted an arm waving out the window. He found Salm and summoned help. A wrecker was needed to extricate the injured man. That took another half hour.

Nelson Continues to Ask Tax Withholding

Promises 'Tight Budget' But Sees Necessity for New State Revenues

BY JOHN WYNGAARD Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MADISON — Gov. Gaylord Nelson, preparing for a second term in the face of a state legislature controlled by Republicans, said today he will present a "tight budget" for the next two years but predicted also that additional revenues through state tax increases will be required.

In his first news conference since reelection by a narrow margin on Nov. 8, the Democratic governor said he will continue to recommend those measures he regards as necessary, including a state income tax payroll deduction plan, that was knocked down by the Republican State Senate two years ago.

The governor indicated that he knows the prospects for that measure are poor but said he will repeat that and other recommendations that he did not elaborate.

Nelson refused to speculate about details of his financial policy for his second term, but observed that his total budget will probably be less "than we ought to have to meet the state's obligations." The remark was interpreted as a concession to the probably more conservative viewpoint of the Republicans who will be in solid control of both legislative houses.

Won't Take U. S. Post The governor also declined comment on his reaction to a sales tax program, if such a measure is brought in by his advisory commission on tax revision, which has promised a report by Jan. 1 after two years of study.

In other highlights his first state capital news conference in three months, the governor said: 1. On the question of his possible selection as U.S. agricultural secretary, repeatedly mentioned

Retired Admiral, Crew Safe on Disabled Yawl

FLORENCE, Ore. (AP) — A retired admiral and his crew of four today were reported safe aboard a storm derelict 12 miles off the Oregon coast.

A coast guard lifeboat found Admiral Rubin Wagstaff's new 47-foot yawl helpless in heaving seas, its masts broken and hanging from wind gusts that reached 100 miles an hour.

Chief Tom McAdams of the lifeboat radioed that he would tow the yawl Suddeness to port, probably to Coos Bay, 12 miles to the southwest.

Wagstaff, who had the boat built two months ago for a projected trip around the world, was out on a trial run when the storm struck. Its radio stayed in operation, however, and the admiral was able to call for help.

5 Hunters Slain, 1 Dies of Heart Attack

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A smoking Trans World Airlines Constellation carrying 81 passengers and a crew of 5 landed safely at the Greater Pittsburgh airport last night. All aboard were evacuated through an emergency chute.

Smoke began to sweep into the cabin about 15 minutes before the plane landed on a flight from Boston to Los Angeles with stops at New York, Pittsburgh and Chicago.

Ten of the occupants suffered brush burns of the hands on sliding through an emergency chute after the plane rolled to a stop on the runway.

Firemen Stand By Five fire vehicles stood by. A TWA official said emergency crews prevented flames from breaking out from the smoldering wires under the cabin. The smoke was believed caused by faulty wiring.

Fifty-two of the passengers were from Pittsburgh or were en route here. The other 29 passengers were dispatched to Chicago aboard another plane, the spokesman said.

The four-engine Constellation landed at 11:50 p. m. EST. The crew included Capt. A. Lusk, co-pilot J. Donlon, Jr., flight engineer A. Wetzell and the stewardesses, M. Smart, and J. Klooze.

TWA said the names of the passengers treated were not available immediately.

Congolese Slash at Americans After Fatal Automobile Accident

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP) — A crowd of knife-wielding Congolese yesterday fell upon a U. S. vice consul, Miss Alison Palmer, who just happened to be passing in her car.

St. Lawrence was taken to Leopoldville's hospital where she was killed outright.

As the approximately 20 screaming Congolese bore down on the car, Carlucci shouted to Danne Miller, "Get your wife out of here before they get at her." He stayed behind.

U.N. Soldiers Nearby "One man stabbed his knife in the direction of my heart," Carlucci said, "but only tore the jacket. Later, when I got aboard the bus, someone told me I was bleeding. I realized then I was stabbed in the back."

Miss Palmer stopped when she came upon St. Lawrence running along the road bleeding. She saw a truckload of United Nations soldiers go by and expected them to help the others.

Carlucci, the last to leave, said the soldiers never reached the scene. He did not know why not.

86 Evacuated From Smoking Constellation

Other Fatalities Hunters killed by gunshot Saturday were Jerome Jacobson, 27, Rice Lake, Ellimuth Martalock, 78, rural Ontario and Roy Olson, 60, Barneveld. The heart attack victim was Alex Jacoby, 69, of Prairie du Sac.

Jacobson was shot and killed by a fellow hunter while hunting near Spooner in Washburn County. Jacobson was married and the father of one child.

Martalock was struck in the chest by a slug from a shotgun less than 10 minutes after the season opened Saturday. He was hunting in Monroe County. Two boys, 16 and 17, were questioned about the shooting. Olson was hit by a stray shot while hunting in Juneau County.

The body of Jacoby was found near Devils Lake State Park in Sauk County where he had been hunting. Authorities said his rifle and wallet were missing, leading to the belief that he may have been robbed after he suffered a heart attack.

David Wolf, 23, Platteville, lost his left leg below the knee Sunday as the result of a hunting accident in Grant County. Wolf was struck in the leg when a rifle discharged accidentally in the hands of a companion. Wolf was rushed to a Prairie du Chien hospital where the limb was amputated.

Sees Liaison Man

Kennedy Works on Taking Over Reins

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The big task of shifting government control from the Eisenhower administration to the new Democratic regime gets President-elect John F. Kennedy's personal attention today.

Kennedy arranged to confer most of the day at his Atlantic shore home with Clark Clifford, his chief liaison man with the outgoing Republicans.

Clifford, who served as special counsel to President Harry S. Truman, was picked by Kennedy shortly after his nomination in July to make a study of the problems of transition from one administration to another.

Confers With Ike Clifford had the study well under way when Kennedy won the Nov. 8 election. Since then, Clifford has conferred twice with President Eisenhower's chief aide, Wilton B. Parsons.

These conferences and the Kennedy-Clifford talks today will be climaxed soon by a meeting of the president-elect and Eisenhower for a top level discussion of the change-over.

Sitting in with Kennedy and Clifford for at least part of the talks will be Prof. Richard Neustadt of Columbia University. Neustadt is a specialist on the problems of government transition.

150 Top Positions From his two advisers Kennedy will get a list of some 150 top positions for which he will be choosing appointees between now and his inauguration Jan. 20, or

Charges Ghana Works With Reds

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — An angry representative of Cameroon, one of the new African countries, today accused Ghana of working with the Soviet Union to set up a Communist regime in the Congo.

The delegate, Charles Okala, told the 99-nation general assembly that the Communists were using Ghana as a bridgehead in Africa. He warned that the Congo problem was "a purely African affair."

That took another half hour.

Series Explains Aspects of U. S. Gold Problem

Sometime this week, the government is expected to announce that America's supply of gold has dropped below $18 billion for the first time in 20 years.

The President has ordered stiff restrictions on overseas spending for military and foreign aid programs, hoping to stem the gold loss.

Associated Press treasury department reporter and financial writer, Frank Cormier, looks into the gold problem in a series of three articles starting in today's Post-Crescent on Page D-12.

Conservatives Roll Back Into Power

Pro-U. S. Party Fails to Get All-Out Backing Sought In Japan's Parliament Vote

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's pro-U. S. ruling conservatives rolled back to control of Parliament today but failed to get the all-out backing they had asked of the nation's voters.

The conservatives claimed their victory was a broad endorsement of the U. S. - Japan security pact and other close ties with the West.

Their leftist opponents claimed leftist gains proved just the opposite.

The nationwide Sunday balloting that returned Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda's Liberal Democrats (conservatives) to power followed the same general pattern of elections in Japan since World War II. It showed a conservative majority battling a slowly but steadily increasing leftist minority.

A middle-road appeal, made by the Democratic Socialist party, was crushed as Japanese voters repeated their sharp swing to the right and left.

Best Showing

The Communists made their best showing in 10 years, increasing their vote from 2.6 to 2.9 per cent and winning three seats.

The vote came against a background of mob scenes in Parliament, violent demonstrations against the U. S. - Japan security pact and President Eisenhower's cancelled visit to Japan. While party leaders played on foreign policy themes during the campaign, regional and domestic issues and personalities were, as always, important.

With all but one of 457 parliamentary seats decided, the unofficial count gave this breakdown:

Vote Breakdown

Liberal Democrats 296, Socialists 145, Democratic Socialists 16, Communists 3, Agrarians 1, independents 5.

The five independents elected are considered in the conservative camp.

With 96 per cent of the popular vote tabulated, the Liberal Democrats had 22,166,738 or 57.8 per cent; the Socialists 10,368,245 for 27.4 per cent; Democratic Socialists 3,319,026 or 8.7 per cent; Communists 1,098,687 for 2.9 per cent; minor parties 134,311 for 0.3 per cent and the independents 1,096,994 for 2.9 per cent.

While the outcome gave Ikeda and his Liberal Democrats a solid victory, they failed in their announced aim of boosting their House strength to 312. That would have given them the two-thirds majority needed in the 467-member house to carry out long-range plans for amending the constitution to strengthen the status of the army and the emperor.

Big Loser

Last month Ikeda dissolved the old Parliament, in which his party held 283 seats, and asked the voters to return more than 300 Liberal Democrats to the ruling lower house.

The Socialists, who had 122 seats in the old House, were resigned to a minority role and were buoyed by the final count. Saburo Ieda, Socialist party secretary general, declared the Socialist showing means "the world situation is changing. We must turn toward neutralism and establish relations with (Communist) China."

The big loser in the balloting was the Democratic Socialist party which made an appeal for a middle course between the collective security with the West line of the conservatives and the sometimes Moscow-pitched approach of the Socialists.

Silent Film Star Found Dead

SHARON, Conn. (AP)—Death came to Phyllis Haver, a top actress in the era of silent films, in a setting of luxury.

The body of the 60-year-old actress was found in the plush bedroom of her home here Saturday. State police said the death appeared to be a suicide.

One of Mack Sennett's original bathing beauties, Miss Haver worked her way up the Hollywood ladder to choice roles in such early film classics as "What Price Glory?" and "The Way of All Flesh."

Mrs. Samuel Graham, a close companion for the last 15 years, said Miss Haver often was depressed and was grief-stricken over Sennett's recent death.

"She never knew," Mrs. Graham said, "that Mr. Sennett was living in extreme poverty during the last years."

She said Miss Haver "would have done anything to help him if she had known."

It was Mrs. Graham who found Miss Haver's body in the bedroom that was lavishly furnished with two pink chaise lounges, a silken bedspread and thick carpeting.

Puritanical Mayor Loses in Election on Tourists' Dress

TORRI BENACO, Italy (AP)—foxed the mayor by letting them the puritanical mayor who tried foreign guests stay without pay to chase scantily clad foreign tourists out of this resort on the close when the city officials cut share of Lake Garda has been chased himself—out of office.

The new mayor says he takes a more liberal view of how vacationers may dress.

Mayor Gino Barbieri was tossed out after a heated local election campaign in which tourists' dress was the main issue in this community of 4,000 near Verona.

Closed Camps

It began last summer when Barbieri ordered the police to close several privately owned lakeside tourist camp sites, charging the tourists dressed in an indecent manner.

Los Angeles Getting Back To Normal

Transit Strike Over but Riders May Pay for It

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The transit strike that snarled Los Angeles' traffic and jammed its freeways is over, but the commuter's worries aren't.

The 400,000 persons who daily ride the metropolitan transit authority's buses and streetcars may have to pick up the tab—in the form of increased fares—as a result of the settlement.

For five days the commuters—spread over a four-county area the size of Maryland and Delaware—had no bus or streetcar transportation because of a strike by 900 MTA mechanics.

Agree to Contract

But yesterday both sides—the MTA, a public agency, and the Amalgamated Transportation Union—agreed to a new 15-month contract. The pact provides higher wages, improved working conditions and prospects for a pension plan.

During the strike, commuters and city officials underwent a unique period of togetherness. Workers got to their jobs by forming car pools, transit authorities set up impromptu passenger loading zones for commuters needing rides and newspapers ran public service notices about rides needed and offered.

Employees got to work late and downtown merchants complained of lagging business, but parking lots reported a five-day bonanza.

Unwanted Situation

It was an unwanted situation for a city that has no real rapid transit system, overcrowded freeways and transportation problems aplenty throughout its 455 square miles.

The union voted 451 to 73 yesterday to accept the agreement. It will raise pay of top-scale mechanics from $2.61 an hour to $3 an hour by July 2. The union said the raises will range from 46 cents to 64 cents an hour in wages and other benefits, depending on classification.

Fares May Go Up

Before the strike started, MTA offered a wage and benefit package increase of 41 cents an hour. The union sought a package that MTA estimated would cost $1.11 an hour.

There were indications other MTA employees would seek similar raises through their unions.

And the MTA said that, unless it gets some form of government subsidy, which is considered unlikely, it will have to raise fares. The authority said the public will get 10 days' notice before fares are increased.

MTA raised its fares a few months ago. The basic fare now is 20 cents.

Fraternity Protests Hotel Application For Liquor License

MADISON (AP)—A University of Wisconsin fraternity is protesting an application for a liquor license for a motor hotel in the campus housing area.

The application is being made by the Madison Inn Corp., operators of the hotel being constructed on Langdon street. The owners are Ernest Lane, Gustav Ward and Charles Goldberg, all of Milwaukee.

Charles S. Van Sickle, counsel for the Gamma Phi Beta House, said Saturday that the fraternity living in extreme poverty during the last years.

Van Sickle said that "granting of a license in this location would permit the applicant to promote its own business interest by subjecting these young people (students) to temptation and by preying on their weakness."

Heavy Loss

The opposition group claimed the village had suffered a heavy financial loss from the departure of the campers. Souvenir shops put placards in their windows saying, "This shop has been damaged by Mayor Barbieri."

The Liberals won at the polls by an overwhelming majority. The new independent mayor, Igino Bonetti, promised he would reopen the tent cities come spring.

President-Elect John F. Kennedy strides briskly on his way to church Sunday in West Palm Beach. His unannounced arrival for a 10 a.m. mass at St. Ann Church caught the parishioners completely by surprise. He drove a convertible to the vicinity of the church and walked the last half block.

Open New Hearings on Teamsters

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new series of hearings involving the teamsters union has been called by Sen. John L. McClellan D-Ark.

McClellan said over the weekend the hearings would start Dec. 13.

There has been a Democratic charge that the grand jury inquiry in Florida was recessed for six months by the Republicans so union reports to the government.

He added that teamster locals 239 and 875 and local 238 of the international Union of Doll and associated with Robert Kennedy in Toy Workers will be specific targets of investigation.

resumed its investigation of Hoffa's alleged misuse of $400,000 in investigations subcommittee in the teamsters funds in a Florida real estate project.

Adlerman said a New York Hoffa previously was investigated by another McClellan senate committee whose chief counsel from influence in New York teamster affairs but actually has not been.

McClellan said he expects the new hearings to show there have been racketeer shakedowns of employers in return for labor peace, misuse of union welfare funds, phony payroll payments to dummy union officials, and false filing of union reports to the government.

He added that teamster locals 239 and 875 and local 238 of the international Union of Doll and associated with Robert Kennedy in Toy Workers will be specific targets of investigation.

Jerome Adlerman, who was associated with Robert Kennedy in Toy Workers will be specific targets of investigation.

A Florida grand jury also has the earlier Hoffa probe, will be gets of investigation.

Tax Revenue Redistribution

Gov. Nelson's tax revision committee has held up its report for months for several reasons including an insistence by some members of the committee that no action should be taken until the matter of tax redistribution has been decided. There have been ultimatums laid down at various times by members of the commission. Some have insisted they would not go for a sales tax until they had been assured that householders would receive some property tax relief. Some have shouted that there should not be an income tax and a sales tax. James Doyle of Madison, chairman of the subcommittee on distribution, has been insistent upon delay until some formula for distribution of the taxes could be worked out. He has had strong support from the governor's commission in his stand and has had the help of Tax Commissioner John Gronouski and of Howard Koop, financial aide to the governor, in his work.

Now, after months of study, this trio appears to have suddenly come to realize the enormity of the task it has undertaken. While their study was on, the state has been engaged in a political campaign in which Mr. Gronouski, at least, took an active part. The results of that campaign were indecisive and unconvincing. Mr. Gronouski evidently feels now that explaining the technical problem before the tax redistribution subcommittee is so difficult as to be discouraging.

As our Madison correspondent has pointed out, redistribution means taking from some and giving to others and thus immediately is a controversial matter. While the unfairness of some of our present tax distribution rules is quite obvious to many people it has not reached a point which brought demand from the majority side. Thus the subcommittee has come to feel that while there is a strong case for redistribution of tax revenues the facts obviously are that the minority in the state is receiving unwarranted benefits and will be aggressively defensive of its position whereas the majority is not suffering sufficiently to make it a demanding, insisting majority. Obviously, if the majority wanted tax revision badly enough, it could get it. But without that desire from the majority even this well intentioned subcommittee may be unable to bring about the changes it is proposing. It is a thankless task to rush into battle against a determined, fighting minority in order to help an unappreciative slumbering majority even though to do so would serve justice.

Neither the tax commission nor the subcommittee on redistribution have expressed themselves frankly on the subject in the terms we have used above. Nevertheless there have been indications their private thinking is along those lines. Now the question arises as to whether the parent commission will be willing to bring in a plan for a tax revision without detailed proposal for redistribution which might start a state-wide controversy which would prevent any revision in the end.

Here's to Our Young People

Two Appleton Optimist clubs and more than 1,800 similar organizations throughout the United States and Canada have been paying special tribute to teenagers during Youth Appreciation Week.

You may ask, "Why honor a bunch of delinquents? Why pay special attention to these junior criminals and who cares anyway?" But the fact is, only about 5 per cent of our teenagers come in contact with the law. The rest are law abiding, worthwhile junior citizens making a concrete contribution to our society. The unfairness of condemning a vast majority of America's youth for the sins of a few is evident.

Teenagers face many of the same problems that upset adults, and being less experienced at the game of life, are less well equipped to solve them. They worry about being accepted, about doing the right thing, about doing well in their school work and other areas of activity.

A look around will convince anyone that our teenagers are doing their part constructively and well. Some have part-time employment as well as a full school schedule and are setting high standards in both. They're studying and working because they know that the future is in their hands and they approach that responsibility seriously.

The vast majority of our teenagers are off to a good start in their journey toward tomorrow. We ought to be — and are — proud of them.

service was developed, the work was organized and assigned to 51 men, power was rerouted to bypass the damaged equipment and a mobile substation was towed from Appleton to take the place of equipment that was damaged and could not be bypassed.

The utility has shown that it recognized its responsibility to the community by providing several sources of power to the city for just such an emergency. A less responsible utility would not have invested in the expensive duplicate facilities.

Most people take for granted that the lamps will light whenever they flip the switch. Few people recognize the work behind the switch that makes our supply of electricity so dependable.

Thanksgiving Spirit May be Exported

Packages of United States surplus food will be sent to 20 countries this holiday season. Anyone wishing to build a little good will with needy people overseas can send one of these packages for $1. CARE, which means Cooperative for American Relief Everywhere, will deliver these personalized gifts to refugees, needy families, victims of disaster and the hungry and the sick overseas, one for each dollar received.

In the packages the foods are mainly dried milk, cornmeal and flour from U. S. stockpiles. CARE varies the contents of the packages to meet the needs and customs of the people overseas. In one variety of the package there is enough dried milk to provide 432 glasses, more than one glass of milk a day for some child overseas. CARE also buys meat, rice and other items needed in various areas to balance the contents of the packages.

The goal this year is 4,255,000 packages to help feed 3,500,000 people. Nowhere in the world will $1 buy so much. Those interested may send their contribution to Midwest CARE office, 125 East Wells St., Milwaukee 2, Wis. It is a way to share Thanksgiving or Christmas with some deserving person overseas.

What Others are Saying

Indian May Teach White Brother Important Lesson in Economics

From Norfolk (Neb.) Daily News

Once known as "primitive", the American Indian may yet teach his "white brother" a lesson in economics. This is especially true if Americans at home and the poorer nations abroad follow the example set by the Navajo Indian Tribe in Northern Arizona and New Mexico.

For many years, the government Indian Service provided minimum educational facilities, well-intentioned advice on farming, and occasional medical care. This was all complicated by the sprawling, sparsely settled, almost trackless land, and the Indians' stubborn conviction that a man's wealth was determined by the number of horses he owned.

Gas and Oil Finds

Then a few years ago private enterprise, recognizing the vast oil and gas potential, moved into the reservation, resulting in the Navajo Tribal Council receiving more than $70,000,000 in bonuses and royalties.

If the Indians had followed the example of their "white brother", this money would have soon been dissipated, but they were fortunate to have a man named Paul Jones as chairman of the Navajo Tribal Council.

Tired of seeing the Indians dependent on government handouts and private charities, Jones decided to bring private enterprise principles to the reservation. Among the first projects completed was a 57½ million sawmill built near Fort Defiance, Ariz.

Lumber Processed

Now processing more than 34 million board feet of lumber annually, the mill provides jobs for 380 Navajos who formerly were recipients of government aid or were employed in menial jobs off the reservation.

Jones then worked three years on an arrangement resulting in an agreement with a private power company to build a huge generating station on Indian lands. Coal from the reservation, mined by a second company, will provide the fuel.

The station will then power additional industry planned for the area, paving the way for better health services, more jobs, and finer educational facilities.

Thus a "have-not" nation within our own borders is well on the way to a prosperous and happy future, secure in the knowledge that it has solved its own problems and is not dependent on the government.

Now Is the Time to Remember Sales People are Humans, Too

Editor, Post-Crescent:

The paper is blossoming with ads for Christmas layaways and the stores are beginning to glow with holiday trims. I am getting the message and I feel now is the time to do some little kindness for my fellow man. The particular fellow-man I have in mind right now is that gallant fellow or gal, the Christmas-rushed store clerk.

The other day I heard a panel discussion between retailers and consumers, or buyers. The main link between these two, the seller, was sadly missing. A good clerk is often the one who makes the difference in selling any article.

The buyers agreed that they wanted to be waited on by someone who would not interfere when they were just looking but would wait on them immediately when they were ready to buy. They wanted someone who would suggest but they didn't like to feel the clerk was trying to push something on them. Most of all they seemed to want a nice, neat, polite, un-rushed clerk with some experience in mind-reading.

Few customers know the policies of the stores in which they make their purchases. Do they pay their employees commission?

Must they meet a quota each day? Are exchanges (the exchange price paid back or credited) deducted from that quota? The cold attitude of clerks on exchanging or refunding goods can often be because of policies like this. I feel that if retailers would let their customers know more about their employer-employee relationships there would be more understanding and friendlier relations between buyer-salesperson and management.

I have several good friends who work as clerks or part-time salesladies and I enjoy their tales about customer types. I would like to tell you about a few of them:

Good-buddy type: The friend who would be embarrassed to buy from you but knows you are a sweet person so always brings her exchanges to you.

Pre-sale Suzy: Flows through stacks of neatly piled merchandise till she finds just what she wants. Tells salesman it's not exactly what she had in mind but when is the next sale?

Gifted gal: Returns everything she buys (sale items too) and says she received articles as gifts and can she exchange them?

Hard-luck Joes: Everything just falls apart. The fact that the item was not washed according to directions and that 10-year-old son played football in it is overlooked. (Item always exchanged for size larger for obvious reasons.)

Toughy Tess: Miffed if saleslady does not drop everything and wait on her. After all, she is a regular customer. Doesn't believe in sale signs that say regular sizes or slightly irregular. Asks if clerk can find her a perfect one in over-long. Insulted if clerk won't put away sale merchandise until she can get there. Usually against company policy.

It's a good bet that any salesperson in the Valley could add volumes to this letter. Employers could probably type-cast some themselves and there is hardly a customer alive that hasn't got a gripe or two about the way their purchases were handled by the sales personnel but then that is the background and thought of this letter.

Christmas is coming up soon. The rush is on. Everyone is in a panic. The kids are anxious and impossible. The thought of Christmas bills is making a bear out of Dad. Parties and programs cut deep into our time, but, please, oh please, don't take it out on the salespeople. Think of the poor families that have to live with them after they get home from a hard day of waiting on the likes of us.

Shanghai Papers Favor Disunion

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for the week of Nov. 24, 1960.

The Free Democrat, the leading Shanghai paper in the State, the original nullification organ in Wisconsin, and the Tribune, principal Nullification-Shanghai organ in the Union, both take decided positions in favor of secession and disunion.

Of course they could not well be consistent as nullification sheets were they to do otherwise. Other Lincoln advocates take the same position, although they ought to know that the President-Elect, with all his political heresies, does not agree with them.

Some even go so far as to claim the "Kentucky and Virginia Resolution" and Jefferson and Madison as advocates of this doctrine to the right of secession. It is fair to presume that the majority are ignorant of the facts in the case and have made their judgment from garbled newspaper extracts, or else they would not have come to any such untenable conclusion.

25 YEARS AGO
Monday, Nov. 18, 1935

The Canadian-American trade treaty's provision for a 50 per cent reduction in duties on Canadian lumber was described by spokesmen for the lumber industry as "paralyzing to the general economy of important parts of the country."

The Outagamie County board re-elected George F. Fiedler, Seymour, county relief director, on the fifth ballot with Anton Jansen, former president of Little Chute, a close second.

F. E. Thomas, Valley Council Boy Scout commissioner and Frank Younger, Menasha, a member of the executive board, were to go to Hortonville that night to confer with a group of about 30 men interested in starting a scout troop at the village.

Ruth Gust was elected president of "Jumisha," the junior mission band of First English Lutheran church. Other officers were Marion Maves, secretary and pianist, Caroline Koester, treasurer, and Dorothy Potter, librarian.

Redistricting Will Make No Great Change

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON—As one of the sessions of the legislative reapportionment commission came to an end recently, Chairman Leland McFarland, a Milwaukee suburban state senator, inquired owlishly:

"Does anybody else have any more little colored maps he wants to submit?"

The little joke came appropriately, for there is no interim group in the statehouse just now that takes itself with quite as much seriousness, or approaches its task with such solemnity, as this one that is nominally charged with working out a revision of the political map of the state to permit legislative districts to coincide in a rough way with the new census returns.

The phrase "rough way" is an accurate one, for it is rarely mentioned that strict adherence to population distribution is not possible under the mechanical restraints of the state constitution. Because there are likely to be only a few less inequities when the job is completed than there are now, there are those who cannot regard the task quite as seriously as those who are now engaged in it.

Wyngaard

balance of power was permanently altered in favor of the cities.

But this year the issue is of small consequence. At the outside, if the reapportionment act is passed, there will be a transfer of four assembly seats from rural to urban territory—two to Milwaukee County, two to Waukesha County — and one senate seat. It is scarcely enough to make any difference in the logistics of capital politics.

The number of seats involved, of course, does not change the validity of the constitutional mandate for a reapportionment act following each decennial census.

But it does change the political importance of the situation, and may very well reduce interest and concern to virtually zero. If it does, those reluctant rural Wisconsin Republicans in the legislature may find it politically safe to postpone reapportionment for this decade. They may be especially tempted since many of the out-state Democrats have very little more appetite for the task, as the record recently has shown.

40 Years Will Tell Future Story

From The Sacramento (Calif.) Bee

It is comforting to read that the human race probably will still be around in the year 2000.

And that there will be no major wars between now and then.

And that cures probably will be produced by then for cancer, heart disease, tuberculosis and — yes — even the common cold.

And that prejudice and bigotry will have faded from the public mind to the point where a Jew might hope to run for the presidency just as the Quaker, the Catholic and the Protestant.

All of these predictions were produced in a poll of leading Americans. They represent the consensus of some 275 persons.

But neglected in their analysis of things to come were such monumental and provocative possibilities as:

Will Casey Stengel, by then, have secured another managerial post?

Will motion pictures still be "stupendous," "colossal" and "sensational"?

Will vaudeville have made a comeback?

Will the Russians have learned another word besides "nyet"?

Will man have expanded his horizon to the point where he is building drive in hamburger stands on the moon?

And yes, will the district attorney in the Perry Mason series have won a case by then?

Forty years from now we shall know.

The junior pigeon began to wail. "But," he protested, "I don't want to be a pigeon towed."

International Court Representative Associated With Known Reds

BY GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

NEW YORK — Frederick V. Field, an avowed Communist, resigned as secretary of the Institute of Pacific Relations by sending this amazing telegram to Dr. Philip Jessup, who held various important positions in that organization which had such an enormous influence upon American policy in China. Jessup is now elected to the International Court. Field had agreed to head the American Peace Mobilization, a pro-Russian, pro-Communist Fifth Column within the United States. "I have been attending a peace congress of some 6,000 representatives from all parts of the country, labor, farm, and middle-class organizations. This is a genuine peace movement through the interpretation of democracy. These people and our program represent what I have for long profoundly believed in. They are asking me to become the executive of a continuing organization, and I feel a deep conviction that I must accept. This show has been and will be smeared by the newspapers. I anticipate losing the respect of many present friends. These developments I regard as inevitable if we do the job in this country that was not done in France, etc. In view of the inevitable criticism and misunderstanding, and because of my continued deep interest in the IPR welfare, I feel that I must, by this telegram, affirm my immediate resignation from all the IPR responsibilities that its officers wish to accept. Finally I must urgently hope for both personal and professional associations that you will reserve your own judgment until I can talk with you.

F. V. Field "Distinguished Service" Dr. Philip Jessup who then headed that organization and who is now elected as American judge on the International Court of Justice at The Hague, said of this at an executive committee meeting — I quote the minutes: "... Dr. Jessup explained that he had subsequently talked at length with Mr. Field who explained in detail the reasons that led him to accept the new position. Mr. Parker voiced the feelings of all present when he inquired whether Dr. Jessup felt that Mr. Field could not be persuaded to resume the secretaryship of the American Council. Dr. Jessup replied that he thought Mr. Field's decision was final. "Under the circumstances it was moved that a minute be drafted indicating the committee's acceptance of the resignation with great regret. The minute should include an appropriate appreciation of the distinguished service which Mr. Field had rendered during 11 years of service.

Operator of Cafe Found Shot to Death

Mrs. Jean Anello Killed by Two Bullets in Head

SIREN (AP)—The 46-year-old operator of a backwoods cafe was found shot to death Saturday in her living quarters in the back of the restaurant.

Dist. Atty. Donald Oakey said that Mrs. Jean Anello evidently had been killed some time Friday night. An autopsy performed at Minneapolis Sunday showed that death was due to two small caliber bullet wounds in her head, Oakey said.

Mrs. Anello, operator of the Northwoods Pizzeria on the outskirts of this village of 600, was last seen alive Friday by patrons. Two deer hunters, who rented cabins from the woman, and a neighbor boy, found the woman's body when they forced their way into the rear of the cafe Saturday.

Oakey said that Mrs. Anello's first husband, Peter Cajackowski, was shot to death in the same building four years ago when a

Mrs. Anello's body was found lying in the hallway near her bedroom. There was no sign of a struggle and no indication that there had been a robbery. The district attorney said, however, that he had not entirely ruled out robbery as a motive.

Oakey said that Mrs. Anello was married about two years ago to Joseph Anello, operator of a restaurant at Anderson. He said that Anello was notified Sunday of his wife's death and was expected here today. The district attorney said the couple had been separated for more than a year. The couple had no children.

Inside Labor

Cuba Madness Blamed On Narcotics Trade

BY VICTOR RIESEL

The voice of Cuba is not psychotic. It is narcotic. Fidel Castro behind a cocaine curtain. There is more of this powerful drug pouring into Cuba, and being used there today, than in the rest of the world.

This drug from the coca leaf induces wildness of extremes. All this has its impact on Cuba's bureaucracy. All this can be checked out with Harry Anslinger, chief of the U. S. Federal Bureau of Narcotics.

Until the other week this division and the Treasury Department's customs service knew of at least one route heavily tread by the cocaine couriers—some of them were Communist agents, it can be presumed.

Addict Informs
Cuba's supply ran from Peru and Bolivia to Mexico City and then to Havana. There the government watched its distribution—with the top command echelons getting first share. The cocaine is churned into a paste in Peru and Bolivia where the coca leaves grow. The paste then is flown into Mexico for refinement. Cocaine is sniffed rather than injected like its sister drug heroin. The latter is used in the U.S. and on the continent more heavily than cocaine because the coca derivative literally induces madness in an addict.

Some months ago our customs officials picked up an addict in the U.S. He turned informer and revealed to our agents that the biggest refining center for drugs used in Cuba was in a certain building in Mexico City. The customs men contacted the Mexican authorities. Together they "knocked over" the laboratory. There they hauled in 14 kilograms of pure cocaine—enough for thousands of doses. This was the equivalent of 496 ounces, more than world authorities have been able to seize in all the world during the past year.

Mexican authorities are dragnetting their country. They don't want their nation to be the base of cocaine refining. Nor do they want it used "to hop up" the Cuban cadres now invading Central America.

Authorities said the drug could induce the type of frequently incoherent and disjointed diatribes launched against the U.S. by Cuban leaders.

Such experts as Anslinger tell me that the Cuban government can derive vast sums from under-cover control of the cocaine trade.

Drug, Slug, Deport

The "revolution" has other uses for it, too. There is a substantiated report that cocaine is being utilized in mass shanghaiing of dissenters—in Moscow they would be called deviationists. The Castro regime is deporting hundreds of its original fighters to labor camps inside the Soviet Union. One group of observers put the figure at 500 men. They are drugged or slugged.

They are then put aboard the now almost endless chain of Soviet block freighters and tankers. Our off-shore intelligence people know that these original Fidelists wind up in Russian work camps.

This helps solve two problems. It rids Castro of those who want to defy the Moscow and Peking "technicians" now running the Havana government. And since many of them are educated and skilled, the deviationists come in handy in skill-starved satellite nations.

If ever the rock of Castro is overturned there will be seen crawling a world sufficiently weird to out-horror George Orwell's sadistic societies. And only 90 miles off shore.

Propulsion Eyed as Use of Atomic Energy

Studies Made on Possibility by U. S. Scientists

NEW YORK (AP) — Next to atomic power and heating plants, on the peaceful use of nuclear energy that most excites the imagination of scientists and general public alike is in the field of propulsion.

Tomorrow Only, Scalp Specialists In Appleton at Conway Hotel Will Show How to Save Hair and Prevent Baldness

Tuesday, Nov. 22nd at the Conway Hotel in Appleton, Staff Director L. E. Schroer will give free hair and scalp examination between 12 noon and 8 p.m. to hair-worried men and women. Phone RE 4-2611.

Erickson Hair and Scalp Specialists, the oldest and largest organization of its kind makes regular visits to Appleton throughout the year to assure you of success in a minimum period of time. Erickson is now in its seventh year. Last year alone, over one-quarter million Erickson home scalp treatments were used.

Before After
Mr. T. A. Melton, Jr.

Baldness is slow and gradual, even in the most common forms. The source of the most common causes are mistreatment and neglect. If you now have, or have in the past, noticed dandruff, itchy scalp, excessive oiliness or dryness, excessive hair fall or thinning at the temples, or crowning, you should see Mr. L. E. Schroer tomorrow. He will determine the type of individual treatment required, explain to you what results you can expect, how long you will have to use Erickson treatment, and how much the cost will be, which is usually less than imitators.

Free Examination
There is absolutely no charge or obligation for your free hair and scalp examination. The only obligation is to yourself, to save your hair and gain more coverage if your "hair factory" is still producing even "fuzz." You can easily follow this new modern method in the privacy of your home. Actually, there are thousands with hair and scalp problems who can be helped by the new Erickson Hair and Scalp

A report to the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, Congress of the United States, notes dryly: "Reactors and radioactive materials have been considered as propulsive energy for ships, aircraft, ground transport and space devices. None of these, however, holds early promise of being competitive in civilian use."

The search goes on. Many countries with shipping interests explore the possibilities. In the government field the United States already has nuclear submarines, a cargo and passenger ship, and the Soviet Union has an ice-breaker and says they also have atomic subs.

Wrong Approach
The report to the congressional committee, made at its request by Robert McKinney, who was first permanent representative of the United States to the International Atomic Energy Agency in Vienna, Hungary, suggests that using nuclear propulsion units in conventional hulls may be the wrong civilian approach. He suggests, "there may be a need for a rethinking of marine transport systems and patterns as a whole."

McKinney, a former assistant secretary of the interior, who is editor and publisher of the Santa Fe New Mexican, adds: "Systems not now in use, such as sea-trains and submarine cargo ships, associated with advanced high-speed cargo-handling terminals, may be explored in the future."

Radiation Hazards
Scientists studying propulsion on the ground — locomotives, off-road vehicles, placer dredges — have run into engineering and radiation hazards more serious than those encountered in stationary atomic electric power plants. Atomic aircraft has been explored as a possibility but the report to the congressional committee headed by Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., feels that space technology seems to have dimmed these prospects.

Before After
Mrs. Virginia Barnes

Specialists home treatment methods. Written Guarantee
Erickson Hair and Scalp Specialists accept only those whose hair will respond. Individuals accepted are given a written guarantee that they must be satisfied with results or money will be refunded on a pro-rated basis. So, why put off your hair problem any longer?

Hopeless Cases Refused
We cannot help men and women who are slick-bald after years of gradual hair loss. In a great majority of cases of baldness (a condition sometimes described as male pattern baldness) we know of no treatments, including the Erickson method, that are of value, therefore, Erickson Hair and Scalp Specialists will continue its policy of refusing all hopeless cases. The people pictured did not have male pattern baldness.

Before After
Mr. K. Fryer

For your free hair and scalp examination, go to the Conway Hotel between 12 Noon and 8 p.m. on Tues., Nov. 22nd and ask the room clerk for Mr. L. E. Schroer's room number. You may phone for an appointment or just come in at your convenience. Examinations are given in private. You will not be embarrassed or obliged in any way.

New York Violinist Wins Soviet Cheers In Moscow Concert

MOSCOW (AP) — A comparatively unknown young New York City violinist Friday night scored the biggest and most unexpected American musical triumph in Moscow since Van Cliburn. Joyce Flissler was kept on the stage of Tchaikovsky Hall by a storm of applause for almost an hour after the end of her violin concert. An audience made up mostly of professional and amateur musicians demanded six encores.

Miss Flissler, the wife of Ralph Mendelsohn, a violinist in the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, came to the Soviet Union for a three-week tour. She was here the first time in 1956, the year Cliburn won the Tchaikovsky piano competition that catapulted him to fame. In the violin competition then Miss Flissler won a runnerup prize. She said it was this showing that decided her to return, which she did entirely on her own.

Closeness of Kennedy Win Is Political Fact

President-Elect's Sharpest Test Likely To be in Area of Fiscal, Tax Policies

BY JOSEPH ALSOP

WASHINGTON — The narrowness of Sen. Kennedy's margin of victory is an important political fact. It has touched off a debate about whether the president-elect really has a mandate to carry out his program. He says, rather firmly, that he has a mandate, but others disagree.

Alsop

This same slimmness of the victory margin has powerfully strengthened the argument for giving a bipartisan character to the new administration, especially in defense and foreign policy. Kennedy was leaning this way from the start. But now it is virtually certain that a rather dramatic gesture of bipartisanship will be made when the Cabinet is chosen.

All the same, the importance of the slim Democratic margin can too easily be exaggerated. If you look at the voting figures, to begin with, you discover that it was a considerable feat to win by any margin at all.

Will See Skeletons
In New York state, a Republican 1956 majority of nearly 1,600,000 was turned into a Democratic majority of 400,000. In Illinois, a Republican 1956 majority of just under one million was successfully overcome. The Democrats had to overturn really unprecedented numbers of votes in almost every state they captured.

When Kennedy enters the White House, he will automatically acquire the keys to the closet where the skeletons are kept.

There are skeletons enough, unhappily, to change the American mood overnight. There is the grim series of U. S. Information Agency reports on this country's standing and influence in the world. There is the nightmarish Gaither Report on our defense posture; and there are at least three earlier reports which are broadly comparable to the Gaither Report. This defense series started with the "Solarium" paper of 1953.

Impact Expected
If and when released, in whole or in part, these suppressed documents and many others like them will prove to the country that the national situation has been grossly and persistently misrepresented for years on end.

The simple fact that the administration then put these documents in the skeleton-closet, without further ado, will have its own considerable impact. The bleak facts contained in the documents will have vastly greater impact. Once the truth emerges from the skeleton-closet, the Kennedy mandate is certain to be more decisive than it is today.

If allowance is made for this vital future development, one can make a fairly accurate computation of how far the Kennedy mandate will extend in all but one of the main policy areas. In the area of foreign and defense policy, to begin with, the mandate will have no serious limitations. The country and the Congress are more likely to want the new president to do too much, than to place obstacles in his way.

Question Mark
In the social welfare area, again, there is every reason to believe that the new president can get the Congress to do what he wants about medical care for the aged, the depressed areas, aid to education, and minimum wages. Though represented as radical, the measures he advocates are far from extreme.

In civil rights, the first question mark is encountered. It is there by the important role of the South in the Kennedy victory. Yet the Southern Democrats knew what they were getting when they chose Kennedy instead of Nixon. Furthermore, the biggest needs in the area of civil rights are not legislative needs. The biggest needs are for more vigorous executive action, and for more determined moral leadership in the White House. Hence the question about civil rights is not really grave.

Fiscal Questions
The only grave question-mark to be found in fiscal and tax policies, where, unhappily, acutely painful measures may be essential if the U. S. is to regain the ground we have lost in the area of foreign and defense policy. When the skeletons in the closet are publicly exhibited, and the

Monday, November 21, 1960 Appleton Post-Crescent AS

India Threatens Red Aircraft

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru said today India will shoot down Communist China planes crossing its borders "when we can." It was the toughest stand he has taken on the long-simmering border dispute.

The government reported last week it had protested to Peiping over 101 air violations of Indian territory in eight months. The Chinese denied the planes were theirs.

Nehru made his threat to stop the violations with force under questioning in Parliament.

15 countries "the voice of isolation is stilled in America."

New Generation

"A new generation of Americans — who came to early maturity fighting for freedom on the fields of Europe and the islands of the Pacific—is coming to power in the leadership of our land," Johnson said.

"In their hearts is a determination to make the most vigorous use of America's resources and capacities to assure their children and the children of all nations a

Space Capsule Shot Fails

Redstone Series Was Leadoff to Attempt With Man

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An attempt to launch an unmanned space capsule failed today.

When the countdown reached zero an escape tower shot into the sky leaving the Redstone booster rocket and the capsule on the pad.

The 15½ foot tower shot straight up into low-hanging clouds and several seconds later plunged back onto the cape.

The launching was to have been the first in the Project Mercury Redstone series. The purpose was to test the capsule in a space environment.

If success had been achieved a chimpanzee was scheduled to ride a Redstone-powered capsule over an identical route within two months. Then if that was successful an astronaut was to take the same trip in February or March in the first U.S. man-in-space attempt.

Trio Uses Same Car In Theft Racket

NICE, France (AP)—Three men have been arrested for dealing in stolen cars—using the same car.

Police said their system was to steal a car, repaint it, sell it again but keep a spare key. When the new owner left it unwatched they would steal the car back, repaint it and sell it again.

They sold the same car seven times, according to the charges.

life without war — a future of peace."

Johnson stressed that he was speaking as a senator and not specifically outlining policies of the administration of President-elect John F. Kennedy. However, Kennedy read the speech when he and Johnson met last week in Texas.

Speech Studied

While Johnson's appearance here had long been planned, he was aware that the U.S. election had elevated its importance and that the speech would be watched, especially by Europeans, as the first indication of the new administration's foreign policy.

The speech indicated the Kennedy Johnson administration would be more receptive toward moves to expand NATO's influence beyond the military field.

"The challenge before us is to add new dimensions to the purposes of our alliance," Johnson said.

Economics Aims

"We can—and we must—together enlarge the community of joint purposes to include new neighbors of the world."

"Beyond mutual military purposes," Johnson said, "we can do much more to implement concepts of economic progress and social gain."

He warned that the U.S. election "was not a call to an easier life. It was a call to a more responsible life."

However, he said, "you here know well the magnitude of President Eisenhower's service to NATO and to the strength of Western Europe. I want you to understand that President Eisenhower will leave public office with the continuing respect, trust and esteem of all his countrymen without regard to domestic partisanship."

Plan Study of New Inventions

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government is financing a study of the present and potential impact of new inventions on the classroom work of teachers.

The National Education Association, sponsor of the study, announced it will be conducted under an 18-month, $102,980 contract with the U.S. Office of Education under the National Defense Education Act.

James D. Finn, professor of education at the University of Southern California, will direct the study of new developments in audio-visual materials and other technology and the problems and opportunities they create for the convention for wholesale revision's teachers.

in the national press. "Nobody has suggested it to me. Under no circumstance would I accept an office of any kind and this particular office requires technical skills that I don't have. I intend to serve out my term here."

Lewis Considered

2. Nelson's assistant, Robert Lewis, loaned to the Kennedy campaign during the fall, will probably be among the top 10 men considered by the president-elect for secretary of agriculture in the new federal Cabinet.

3. There was a strong Republican trend at all levels of politics in Wisconsin this year that accounted for the reverses of the Democratic party, and farmers failed to give their expected backing to the Democrats because "neither party had a persuasive farm program," and Vice President Nixon managed to shed himself of Agriculture Secretary Benson.

4. Nelson will do what he can to persuade the legislature to support the principle of population representation in the reapportionment of the legislature in 1961.

Carley, Nusbaum to Stay

5. Two of his key state office nominees, David Carley of the Department of Resource Development and Joe E. Nusbaum of the new Department of Administration, legally will remain as de facto officers even if the Republican State Senate, as expected, refuses to confirm them when it convenes in January.

The Republican Senate refused to confirm them a year ago, whereupon the governor reapportioned them. They run the agencies that Nelson hailed during his campaign as the principal achievement of his first term, and they were also chief targets in the recent Republican campaign.

The governor will begin biennial budget hearings next Monday. Republican lawmakers who will be the likely chairmen of the legislative finance committee, will sit with him, the Republican caucus has decided.

Nelson declined to comment on the demands for pay increases by the state educational institution faculties and other higher spending proposals already on file. He also indicted general agreement with the weekend recommendation of Southern California, will direct the study of new developments in audio-visual materials and other technology and the problems and opportunities they create for the convention for wholesale revision's teachers.

immediately thereafter. Hundreds of lesser jobs also must be filled. Clifford, who arrived Sunday afternoon, had still another Kennedy assignment. He represented the president-elect at a conference with a delegation sent by the Louisiana Legislature.

The group was under instructions to find out Kennedy's views on a federal court order enjoining the legislature from interfering with school integration in New Orleans. The delegation outlined its mission to Clifford, who simply listened and promised to report to Kennedy.

Caribbean Crises

Kennedy headquarters had announced the delegation would meet with Clifford today but declined to specify where or when.

Over the weekend Kennedy divided his time between recreation and conferences dealing with reorganization of the Defense Department and discussion of the tense situation in the Caribbean area.

His house guests were two Democratic senators, Stuart Symington of Missouri and George Smathers of Florida.

Symington, secretary of the Air Force in the Truman administration, is head of a Kennedy study committee on Pentagon reorganization. Mentioned frequently as a Kennedy choice for secretary of defense, Symington said he had told the president-elect he feels he can be of more help to the new administration by staying in the Senate.

Talks of Economics

Symington, whose report to Kennedy is scheduled for completion by the end of the month, has talked of saving between five and 10 billion dollars a year through greater administrative efficiency in the Defense department.

With Smathers, the president-elect talked over the menace of communist penetration in Cuba and other Latin American countries.

Sunday morning the president-elect got behind the wheel of a cream-colored convertible and, with the top down in brilliant sunshine, drove five miles from his ocean front home to Mass at St. Ann's church in West Palm Beach.

Brynes Sees Little Hope For Winner's Platform

New Congress Won't Agree on Democratic Stands Because of Close Vote, Senator Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Kennedy, after his inauguration Jan. 20, "will request a fairly full package of the things he promised in his campaign," but this will bring on a sharp battle in Congress.

Byrnes, chairman of the House Republican Policy Committee, said the results of the election, in which Sen. John F. Kennedy narrowly won the presidency, showed the people did not want a sharp turn to the left.

"The general composition of the new Congress (which convenes in January) forecloses the carrying out of most of the grandiose promises by Kennedy in the campaign and contained in the Democratic platform," Byrnes said.

It is Byrnes' view that there will be conflict between Kennedy and the Congress, even though there are large Democratic majorities in both the House and Senate.

During the past few years a coalition of Republicans and conservative Democrats blocked many of the Democratic leadership proposals. The Republicans in the new Congress have picked up 22 House seats and two seats in the Senate.

Byrnes said the Kennedy program is more likely to be successful in the Senate than it is in the House.

He said there are six major pieces of legislation that will cause sharp controversy, they include:

1. Raising of the minimum wage level from the present $1 limit.
2. Medical care of the aged as part of the social security system.
3. Distressed area legislation.
4. Federal aid to education.
5. Civil Rights.
6. Farm legislation.

The Kennedy forces, Byrnes said, will have a better chance of success in the minimum wage and distressed area fields, but will be hard pressed to come up with what they want in the other programs.

Byrnes said the fate of the Kennedy program will be dependent to some degree on the success speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., and Lyndon Johnson, the vice president - elect, have in swinging southern Democratic members back of it.

Byrnes said it is his guess that the Kennedy program will be dependent to some degree on the success speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., and Lyndon Johnson, the vice president - elect, have in swinging southern Democratic members back of it.

Library Club At St. John Gets Charter

Affiliation With Catholic Group Takes Three Years

LITTLE CHUTE — Members of St. John High School Library Club became official members of the National Catholic Student Library Assistants Association with the reception of their charter last week, according to Sister Mary Camisa school librarian.

This was the final step in organization of library assistants, started by Sister Camisa in 1957. First step was getting students to volunteer their help, second was affiliation with the Catholic Student Library Assistants Guild of Wisconsin and finally the securing of the National charter. Student assistants are known as Library Pages.

Club Activity

Judy Hant-schel, president of the St. John Club, said it was a privilege to serve as a Library Page and told of the training received both in major and minor phases of library work. Creative ability of students finds an outlet in decorating library bulletin boards and arranging displays, noted the president.

Activities of the club include shelving books, working on the check-out desk, tabulating circulation of magazines, publishing articles for the monthly state newsletter, advertising books available and producing an assembly program during the course of the school year.

Personal benefits which accrue to assistants includes career information, thorough acquaintance with the library, new books and new people, development of initiative and the opportunity to serve others.

Allen Ebben and Charles Fritsch joined the club this year, the first boys to serve as library assistants in the three-year history. Officers besides Miss Hant-schel are Carol Van Boxtel, vice president; Claire Bongers, secretary, and Barbara Koehnke, treasurer. Others in the club are Janice Lee Johnson, Jane Hietpas, Joylayne Tousey, Joyce Rickert and Jacqueline Berben.

Shoulder Droop

"Dear Dr. Molner: We see many people with one drooping shoulder, usually the right. Would old-fashioned shoulder braces correct this?" — Mrs. P.A.S.

I doubt it. These drooping shoulders are usually the result of (1) some quirk in development of the body, or (2) a defect in posture. Few of us are perfectly symmetrical. Perhaps nobody is. The right side of the face virtually never is exactly like the left. So you'd expect the right shoulder to be slightly higher than the left. In cases of "drooping shoulder" I'd forget about it unless it is severe. If it is severe, I would consult an orthopedist.

He's Worried

"Dear Dr. Molner: We are worried about a brother-in-law who recently underwent an operation for removal of the prostate gland. He had always been very easy-going and good natured, but now is a changed man. Do you think the operation caused this?" — C.S.

Yes and no. The operation didn't do anything that caused this change in temperament. Operations don't. But I'll tell you what I think did cause the change. He's worried! Chances are, of course, that the operation did all that was expected to do. His health, in that case, has been protected. But he is still worrying about it. We all worry, I suppose. And that, most likely, is the whole story of his temporary change in temperament.

Do you have an unruly child? If so, send for my leaflet, "Tantrums — And What They Mean." To receive your copy, write to Dr. Molner in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 5 cents in coin to cover handling. (Copyright, 1960)

The photographic world, dormant for a while, is about to erupt with a host of new cameras and equipment. Spurred on, perhaps,

Protests Flood in Over Assessments For Street Work

Gammey Promises to Continue Fighting Against 1957 Policy

MENASHA — Although approved and in force since July 2, 1957, Menasha's direct assessments on all street improvement projects didn't draw much fire from citizens until this weekend.

Last Friday 700 bills for street seal coat work were sent out. Another 200 are to go out this week. Far fewer were billed in previous years.

Saturday and Sunday, telephones of Mayor John Klein, City Clerk Harry Kind and the 10 aldermen were ringing. Kind this morning received many inquiries about the bills.

May Rescind

Klein pointed out the assessment policy on grading, paving, curb-gutter, sanitary sewer and sidewalk projects was adopted in 1957. The first assessments were approved by the council May 6, 1958.

"The present council is thinking very seriously of rescinding the policy," said Klein.

Ald. Louis Gammey, who pointed out that his Fourth ward is bearing the burden of the direct assessments, today promised "I'll continue to fight to repeat the assessments, and have them paid for out of the general fund. Assessments are one of the most untouchable things ever put on the people of Menasha. It was done by the past (R. G. DuCharme) administration on the pretense of lowering taxes. It was slipped through very quickly."

Callers to the city clerk's office were being informed the policy was adopted three years ago to "help the city pick up more revenue."

To Meet Tonight

The council will meet as a committee of the whole at 7 p.m. tonight to consider the 1961 city budget, which will total about $2,250,809 and calling for approximately $36 per $1,000 valuation tax rate, to raise about $1,560,363 in property taxes.

Public hearing on the 1961 budget will be Dec. 6. The council will adopt the budget and salary ordinance after the hearing. Protests may be lodged at that time by citizens who appear.

Palm said both of the bodies were badly decomposed. He said an autopsy would be performed today on the body of Mrs. Klein to determine if she died of natural causes.

Palm said "Gockley had been milking her (Mrs. Klein's) accounts by forging checks."

The detective said the case may have been forgotten and Mrs. Klein and the man presumed missing but that Gockley upset his "so-called perfect murder" when he began forging more checks and writing letters purported to be from the woman in the south.

After Mrs. Klein was last seen alive in March, her friends began receiving letters that she had married an Arthur Smith in Georgia and intended to remain in the south.

Palm said a friend brought it to the attention of police that a letter told Mrs. Klein's marriage. Palm said something seemed unusual, that it wasn't like her to stay away with those checks constantly turning up. He said police checked vital statistics bureaus and found there had been no marriage.

Palm said Gockley admitted forging the letters and mailing them, later collecting rent monies from Mrs. Klein's property through a power of attorney and forging more checks.

Palm said the continued activity made police suspicious and they had the letters and other documents checked by the FBI. The FBI reported they were forged, touching off an investigation which led to Gockley. Palm said the clincher came when police found a wallet belonging to the woman in Gockley's home.

Group Recommends Deputy to Assist New Secretary of State

RACINE (AP) — The Midwest American Assembly conference recommended Sunday that the Secretary of State's office be strengthened by the upgrading of posts in it.

The conferees, including political science experts from several universities, suggested that the new Secretary of State be given a deputy secretary. They also proposed that the secretary be provided with five under-secretaries, each with regional responsibilities and an under-secretary for administration.

They agreed that the cabinet office, as it now operates, requires too much time by the Secretary of State in congressional hearings, personal negotiations overseas and in detail work.

The assembly also urged that the State Department increase the flow of information on foreign policy to the public.

The assembly was sponsored by the Johnson Foundation Conference Center, the American Assembly and four midwestern universities, including Wisconsin.

The company restored service to about half the homes Sunday. The rest will get service within a day or two, a gas company spokesman said.

Temperatures here dropped to the mid 30s at night.

By A. W. Moller, D.V.M.

Q. Our 5-month-old, part Spitz, part water Spaniel digs large holes in our yard. How can we stop him? Ned F. Letts of Maywood, Ill.

A. Dogs have individual motives for such actions. The dog with wonderlust will dig under fences in his bid for freedom. Others try to get to the roots of plants, trees, etc. because they like the taste, and many dogs consider the good earth the ideal spot for bones. Then there is the mischievous excavator, in the case of your well-fed, cared for, and exercised pet. I suspect the latter. When your dog must be outside alone, I'd suggest tying him on a hard surface (such as the driveway) for a few months. There is a product available in pet stores that can be used on flower beds, shrubs, etc. It will usually repel and discourage the dog from further digging.

Mother of Six Stabbed by Mate

Crowe told officers the stabbing was an accident — that he was "just funning" with his wife, Leah May Crowe, 38.

Roundheaded Screw, Stiff Cardboard Needed for Game

BY CAPPY DICK

Did you ever spin a top to learn how many moves you have in a game? Here's how you can quickly make such a spinner with nothing more than a roundheaded screw and a small piece of stiff cardboard.

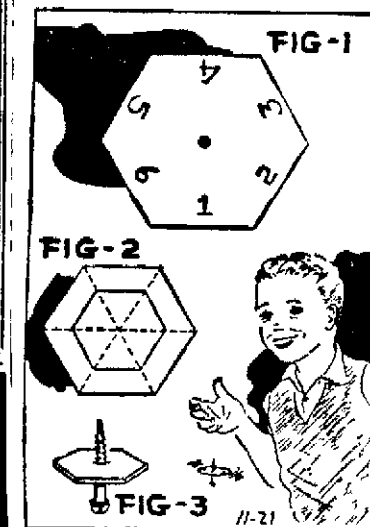

Cut the cardboard to the hexagonal shape shown in Figure 1, making it about two inches wide from one point to the opposite point. Print numbers on it as in Figure 1. If you find it hard to Screw it down to the smooth part of the screw-shaft.

The top is spun by twirling the screw point between thumb and forefinger, using the round head as the pivot. When the top stops and rests on one of its sides, the number on that side indicates the number of moves you are to make on the game board.

In addition to using this homemade top in any game requiring a spinner, it may be used as a game by itself. Each player spins in turn, adding up the numbers he gets to make his score. Ten spins complete a game. Other ideas for games in which this spinner may be used can easily be figured out.

(Copyright, 1960)

The piece of cardboard is cut so it will have six sides.

draw a six-sided figure that is even, cut out Figure 1 and paste it on the cardboard. Then as shown by the dotted lines in Figure 2, draw straight lines through the center from each corner to the opposite corner. Extend the lines half an inch beyond the boundaries in Figure 1. Connect the ends of the extended lines and you will have a six-sided figure of suitable size. Cut the cardboard on the new lines.

In your nail box find a round-headed screw about an inch and a half long. Screw this through the exact middle of the cardboard hexagon so the head is on the blank side and the point is on the numbered side (Figure 3). Oshkosh police station

Women's honors went to Aline Brantmeier with a 190 singleton and 513 triple. Morton Drugs hold a 2-game lead with a 13-5 record. No honor totals were reported in the latest session of the Ball and Pin Women's circuit at the Brin Bowl. Cozy Bar won three games and has a 3-line edge with a 24-3 record.

Wisconsin Rapids Erupts for 30 Points in Final Segment; Neenah Leads for 3 Quarters

WISCONSIN RAPIDS — A 30-point eighth quarter, a 56-51 lead, and point blitz in the fourth quarter from then on were unstoppable.

Dave Burton and John Christanson rebounded well for the Rockets. Forrest Hyde and Burton picked up their fourth fouls in the third period but so did Oestreich and Jack Skibba of the hosts. Skibba fouled out while the others finished with four.

NEENAH — You can't kill people physically, they are killed by add.

over indulgence. That is the theory of Robert Kiphuth, one of the country's foremost authorities on women's swimming team in 1928 Olympics, guided United States squads in 1932, 1936, 1948 and this year and was named head coach of the 1940 squad which couldn't compete because of World War II. He picks the 1948 team as the best but declares that he has nothing but admiration for this year's group.

The 1948 men's team captured every first place, the first time in history such a feat ever has been accomplished. Of this year's team, he said they were a dedicated bunch.

He feels the future is good, that the 1964 team should be even better, but hastens to add whenever you say something like that you're sticking your neck out.

Unbeaten Grid Team
 He compared this year's Olympic swimming team to the Yale football squad, which Saturday completed an unbeaten season. Before the campaign started, the Elis were picked to finish in the

Swimming In Infancy
 The Olympic coach, whose forefathers won nine swimming and two diving gold medals in the Olympics at Rome last August and September, says that swimming is still in its infancy and the mechanisms of strokes are still crude.

"I've only seen about six great swimmers all of my life," he reports, adding that he likes to watch the natators from up above and in the national championships only one or two look good, the others "wallow around."

He cites Herb Elliott, the Australian runner, as an example of a magnificent athlete, one who murdered the field in the Olympics.

Looking ahead, he sees no end to the records which will be set. He expects that within three Olympics, or 12 years, the 1,500 meters swim will be done in 15 minutes. Kiphuth would like to see more athletes competing after their college days because they are much better between the ages of 22 and 25 than before. If men in those ages ran more, this country could do better in the long dis-

Zephyrs Make 1960-61 Debut Against DePere High Quint

8 Lettermen Form Nucleus Of Defending State Champs

MENASHA — Staffed with a nucleus of eight veterans from its Laemmrich, Rueckl, Becker and Rechner, all seniors.

In De Pere, the Zephyrs have drawn no easy assignment. The Redbirds, too, have a veteran squad and showed their power with a convincing win over Little Chute St. John Friday night. Most of the boys were members of St. Mary Grade School team which was unbeaten four years ago.

Five Lettermen
 Returning lettermen are Ken Smits, a 4-year veteran; Dave Rhodes, who spent his first two years at St. Norbert High school; Pete Larsen and Jerry McCormack, all seniors, and Jerry Daanen, a sophomore, who lettered as a freshman.

The starting lineup will consist of Smits and Rhodes at guards; Daanen and Lasee, a 6-1 junior with previous varsity experience at forwards, and Keith Hart, a 6-2 senior, at center.

The meeting will be the first between the two schools since back in 1944 when both compete in the war-time Victory Conference. McCrone was a member of that Zephyr team.

The Schedule
 Nov. 22—at East De Pere.
 Nov. 25—at Benedict home.
 Nov. 30—at St. John.
 Dec. 2—Marquette Central home.
 Dec. 15—Prenon home.
 Dec. 23—Spring home.
 Jan. 4—Xavier home.
 Jan. 12—St. Francis.
 Jan. 14—at Penning.
 Jan. 20—at St. John home.
 Jan. 22—at Penning home.
 Jan. 29—at Assumption.
 Feb. 1—Wausau Newman home.
 Feb. 4—Prenon home.
 Feb. 8—at Lourdes.
 Feb. 11—at Marinette Catholic.
 Feb. 18—Wauk. Memorial home.
 Feb. 21—at Prenon.

10 is nothing short of phenomenal. It includes 194 wins, 48 losses, eight conference championships, four regional tournament crowns and three state titles. His teams in the last two years have won 40 of 45.

All-Staters Graduate
 Gone from last year's powerhouse are all-staters Pete Vanderhyden and Dean Schreiner, now at Marquette and Regis college respectively, Mike Herlache, Jim Rueckl, Norm Brown, and Mike Kiefer. The first five graduated while Kiefer, a 6-5 senior, didn't report. He was out most of last year with a knee injury.

Despite the personnel losses, the picture is far from gloomy. Returnees include Jim Koerner, Jerry Laemmrich and Bill Becker, all regulars, and reserves Tony Rechner, Bob Stumpf, Bob Rueckl, Adrian Martin and Paul Meier.

Koerner and Laemmrich are tremendous rebounders and the former ranked second in scoring last year with 301 points. Schreiner led with 357. Becker scored 171 points. Laemmrich 154, Rueckl 51, Rechner 34, Stumpf 24, Martin 10 and Meier two.

Others on the varsity are "Zeke" Young, 6-3 transfer from Appleton Xavier and Dave Eckholm, Phil Keller and Richie Konkol up from the jayvees. Sophomores Bill Starr and Tom Johnson also may see some varsity duty.

Fine Rebounding
 Koerner, Laemmrich and Rueckl could provide the Zephyrs with one of their finest rebounding clubs in years. They only measure a couple inches above six feet but can get off the floor with the best of them.

Kennedy Praised For Nixon Talks

Discussions are Without Example In American Politics, White Says

BY WILLIAM S. WHITE
WASHINGTON — President Kennedy has brought Nixon inward drawing up the most useful approach to national unity in the face of our foreign troubles that this country has known since it became a world power.

His action in opening international foreign policy discussions with his defeated rival for presidency, Richard Nixon, is without example in American politics.

Franklin Roosevelt did not deal either so magnanimously or so sensibly with the top GOP leader of his time, Herbert Hoover—not even after our entrance in the second world war was coming near.

Relationship Misunderstood
Dwight Eisenhower, upon his election, brusquely excluded Harry S. Truman from any sort of role in world affairs. The principal weakness of the retiring administration has not lain in Eisenhower's alleged "softness" as a party leader, so far as foreign policy is concerned, but, instead, in his curious "hardness," in this area, toward Democrats who could and would have helped him. Kennedy has brought Nixon inward drawing up the most useful approach to national unity in the face of our foreign troubles that this country has known since it became a world power.

It is a relationship oddly misunderstood by two wholly different groups for two totally different reasons. It suggested the day after the election that the winner might bring the loser into "a close creative advisory association" with the new administration.

No Cabinet Invitation
Such a thing had already been in Kennedy's mind. It was made absolutely certain that he would carry through on it once his victory turned out to be so narrow in popular votes. (There was, at the time, reason to believe also that had the election result gone the other way Nixon would have done the same thing.)

To anybody remotely aware of political reality there never was, of course, a chemical trace of possibility that Kennedy would actually ask Nixon into his cabinet. Such an offer would have been manifestly absurd. And Nixon, as still the head of a powerful opposition party, would not for one moment have contemplated it even if it had been made.

A man still well in the running for a future presidency in one party would hardly leave that for the glories, say, of being secretary of something or another in another party.

Democratic professional ultra-liberals, however, immediately began to hiss in angry fear at the mere thought of any conciliation whatever of the Nixon followers—who do, after all, make up half

He is fully aware that partisanship, the division of the sheep from the goats, is for campaign purposes, whereas your problem, once elected, is to be able to govern—govern all the nation and not just its Democratic half.

Ask Geological Survey For Artificial Lake

Legislative Group Seeks Funds to Determine Water-Holding Ability

MADISON (AP)—A Legislative Council committee has recommended the allocation of funds for an engineering check of the water-holding capacity of lands included in the proposed construction of an artificial lake at Wildcat Mountain State Park in western Wisconsin.

A cost estimate of the tests was not included in the recommendation which the council's conservation committee will submit to the 1961 Legislature.

Such an estimate would have to come from the engineering firm engaged to do the job, Prof. Arno T. Lenz of the University of Wisconsin's civil engineering department told the committee.

Geological Survey
A Wildcat Mountain lake proposal has been before the Legislature for several sessions.

In almost every instance, Assemblyman Howard Pellant (D-Milwaukee) told the committee, the proposal has foundered on the lack of specific geological information on the area. Pellant is committee chairman.

"I don't know how we can proceed this time," Pellant said, "until we find out if the land will hold water or not."

Lenz said the university was not equipped to make drill tests required to check the underlying rock structure of the area.

He did tell the committee, however, that his survey indicated that a concrete dam could be built between sandstone bluffs on either side of Billings Creek to make a 300-acre impoundment.

Billings Creek lies east of land up and tell them what happened.

Industry Helps Provide Jobs At Workshop

Dedication Service
Lauds Fox Valley
Cooperative Spirit

Industry's great opportunity to perform a humane service is in helping develop projects like the new Fox Valley Sheltered Workshop.

This was the substance of a talk Sunday by Elmer H. Jennings, when the workshop in Appleton's Industrial Park was dedicated.

Jennings is chairman of the board of Thilmany Pulp and Paper Co. and of the workshop board.

American industry has developed to the point where it can go outside of its own plants to provide employment, he noted.

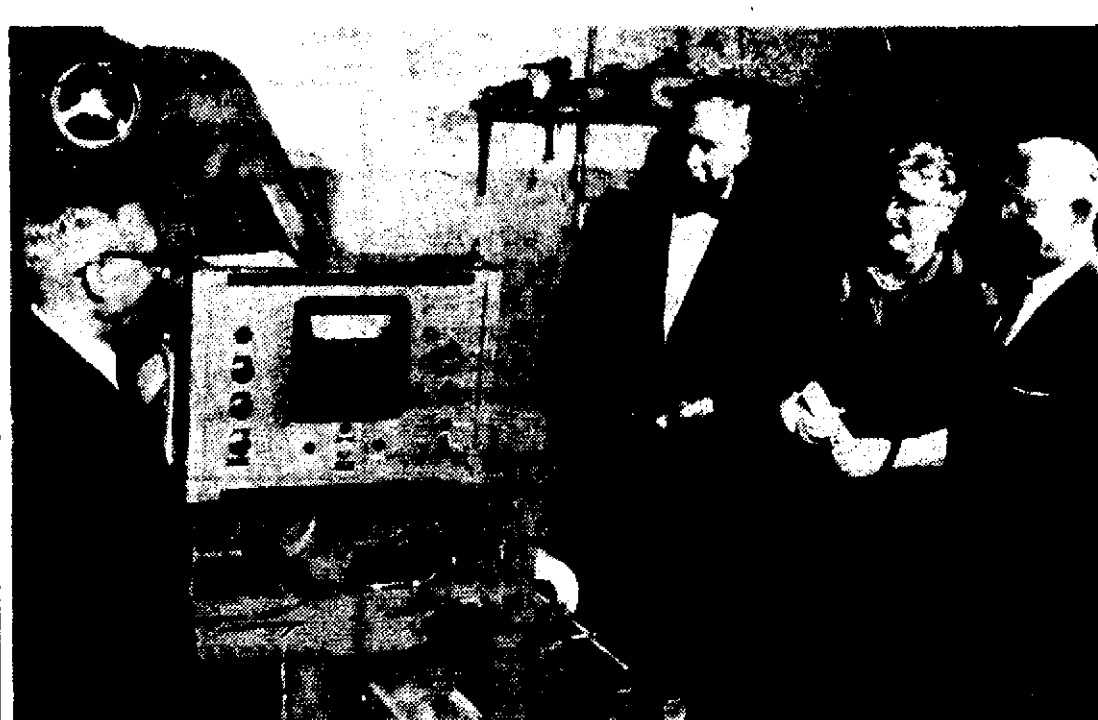

Often times it would like to give more work to handicapped, but finds this impossible because some of the disabled workers need special equipment before they can do a job. Industry is not always able to provide this special equipment, he said.

Workshop Needed
This is where a place like the workshop takes over. It can meet the needs of the handicapped so they can be gainfully employed.

Jennings paid special tribute to Fox Valley industries, merchants, labor groups and individuals who donated money, materials and time to building the new workshop.

About 25 handicapped now work there and the building will accommodate 35 to 40. Future expansion could hike the work force to 70.

about $60,000 to build because of all the donated money, material and time, but is valued at $90,000, L. C. Smith, workshop president noted.

About 75 persons attended the dedication service in Xavier High School, and about 500 toured the new building.

Guests of honor were the mayors and village presidents of the Fox Cities.

General chairman for the event was the Rev. H. Shelby Lee, pastor of First Congregational Church. Invocation was given by Rabbi Gilbert Silverstein and Bro. Peter of Xavier High School gave the benediction.

Harold Sperka Heads Promotion For Ranch Trip

Harold C. Sperka, 512 Cecil St., Neenah, has been named chairman of a Valley Council Boy Scout committee for promotion of a trip to the Philmont Scout Ranch near Cimarron, N.M.

Sperka will acquaint Explorer Scouts with Philmont and assist them in making arrangements to attend the ranch this summer.

The Philmont ranch is for scouts between 14 and 18. It covers 127,000 acres of desert and wooded mountains.

Sperka said scouts will receive literature describing Philmont in the near future. The ranch has 1,000 Hereford cattle, 300 horses, 250 burros and 1,100 acres of cultivated land under irrigation.

A 12-day camp expedition costs $42, a 24-day expedition costs $84.

Two Fined

Charles Miller, 17, route 3, Seymour, and David Sievert, 18, route 1, Black Creek, were fined $25 apiece in Municipal court on charges of disorderly conduct. The two were charged after an altercation Nov. 1 in the Town of Seymour.

Safety Council Asks Support For New Laws

The Wisconsin Council of Safety has asked its 35 affiliated local safety councils to help win support for three measures to reduce traffic accidents.

The proposals, which probably will be incorporated in bills before the 1961 legislature, would:

1. Expand high school driver training courses through a state aid program financed by increasing driver license two-year renewal fees from $1 to $2 and adding 50 cents to present instruction permit and original driver license fees.

2. Provide for special examinations for problem drivers by increasing the state driver examiner force from 103 to 118.

3. Obtain needed accident information by requiring reports on standard forms.

The local safety councils are scheduling special meetings at which members of the Wisconsin Council of Safety traffic division will explain the three measures.

Civic leaders and legislators are being invited to the dinner meetings.

Girl Credited With Saving Life of Woman Who Fell in Well

PRAIRIE DU CHIEN (AP)—An 11-year-old girl who heard the screams of a woman trapped in a 30-foot dry well with a broken leg is credited with helping to save her life.

Mrs. Alice Sawvell, 63, was repairing a grape arbor over the well Saturday when the wooden platform collapsed under her weight. She dropped into the pit. Mary Mahan, who lives in a second floor apartment over Mrs. Sawvell's quarters, heard her boy and a girl from each of 14 calling for help. The girl ran out home rooms.

A fire department rescue squad and police rigged a harness and lifted the woman to the surface. She was taken to Memorial Hospital.

Kennedy Avoids Red Trap on Peace Issue

Reply to Khrushchev Note Upholds Past Fundamental American Policy

BY ROSCOE DRUMMOND
WASHINGTON — In their first post-election exchange President-elect Kennedy has nimbly sidestepped the little trap which Nikita Khrushchev set for him.
The Soviet Premier sent a telegram to Hyannis Port almost before Mr. Nixon said in effect: Esteemed Mr. Kennedy, it is now in your hands to pull the United States back from the course of war-mongering provocation and aggression which President Eisenhower pursued and restore the placid, trusted relations which prevailed between Stalin and Roosevelt.
It is indicative of Kennedy's quickness of mind—which he showed so often in the television "debates"—that he did not let this false implication pass even in a casual and informal message. The President-elect was alert to disassociate himself from Mr. Khrushchev's bland premise that if Kennedy started promoting peace, this would be something new for the United States. What he said in effect was that he would be carrying forward, not changing, America's long-standing purpose of trying to achieve a better peace.

Kennedy's Reply

He used these words: "The achievement of a just and lasting peace remains a fundamental goal of this nation, and a major task of its president. I am most pleased to have your good wishes at this time."

Naturally the President-elect's first steps into international diplomacy, particularly his dealings with Mr. K., are going to be watched closely here and abroad.

In this response to a congratulatory message which Khrushchev couldn't keep from being argumentative, Kennedy was agile and prudent. He didn't say too much; he didn't say too little.

Since the senator in his campaign had wrapped the mantle of Franklin D. Roosevelt around his candidacy, evidently the Soviet leader saw an opportunity to wrap the mantle of Roosevelt around the next summit conference, hoping to make a special appeal to Kennedy.

"We hope," Mr. K. wired to the

An Enthusiastic Crowd of Excited youngsters greeted Santa Claus Saturday afternoon when he arrived at Valley Fair Shopping Center. The boy in the center seems eager to take advantage of Santa's visit. Santa arrived in a pony-drawn sleigh after visiting children's wards in the two Appleton hospitals.

President-elect, "that while you are at this post the relations between our countries would again follow the line along which they were developing in Franklin Roosevelt's time. . ."

Nothing could be more irrelevant. Soviet-U.S. relations during the time of Roosevelt and Stalin were those of war-time allies fighting a common battle for survival. Moscow threw over this alliance by imposing Soviet rule over Eastern Europe and later providing much of the sinews for the Korean aggression.

In private messages, now open to historians, Churchill and Roosevelt, shortly before F. D. R.'s death, began to see what a terrible mistake they had made at Yalta by accepting unenforceable promises by Stalin of free elections in Eastern Europe. The Communist promises came easy. They dishonored them. It was too late to repair the damage.

This is another reason why nothing could be more harmful than to restore the Soviet-U.S. relations of the Stalin-Roosevelt era.

Summit Preparation

Whatever Khrushchev may hope to achieve at a spring summit, Kennedy will not go with his eyes closed, nor, he has said, will he attend an unprepared summit.

Chester Bowles, the senator's close foreign policy adviser, warns against "mistaking summits for serious negotiations" and against "undertaking high-level meetings without preparation in depth."

As though he were tipping off Moscow, Bowles contends that "summit meetings are valuable largely to confirm agreements already reached."

He has also tried to dispel some of the wishful thinking of those "who believe that negotiations for their own sake are an alternative to cold war."

I am sure that Mr. K. will not find Kennedy a "soft touch"; far from it. The basic premise of the President-elect is sound; namely, that the Communists are not going to negotiate the cold war out of existence and that peace will be won not primarily by what we can do against the Communists but by what we do in behalf of the free world.

Wife, Visitor Stop Him

Black Creek Man Tries Window Leap

A rural Black Creek man threw himself through the window of his second story apartment early Sunday morning, but his wife and a visitor pulled him back in.

His story to police and a physician led to a wild tale of a beating and stabbing, none of which was true, Glenn Woodke, 24, route 2, Seymour, told Outagamie County Sheriff's Lt. Jack Zuelzke today.

Hauled In

Woodke is to be released from St. Mary Hospital, Green Bay, today. He received a severe finger cut, arm cuts and cuts across the mid-section during his window leap and the haul back by James M. Berry, 33, a pipeline worker from Oklahoma living at the Hotel Marson in Clintonville, and Mrs. Mary K. Woodke, 19.

Woodke and Berry argued about a speeding fine of $58 owed Berry by Woodke after the pipeline worker appeared at the apartment about 1 a.m., Woodke told Zuelzke today. He said Berry paid the fine after Mrs. Woodke was

MOSCOW (AP)—Finland's President Urho Kekkonen led a delegation to Moscow today to work out an agreement with the Soviet Union enabling his country to do business with the European Free Trade Association's "Outer Seven."

Wrapped in a heavy overcoat and wearing a black astrakhan hat, Soviet Premier Khrushchev turned out in below-zero weather to greet the Finns at the railway station.

"Soviet-Finnish relations are a good example of the practical implementation of the principles of peaceful coexistence of states with different social systems," said the Soviet leader.

Richard B. Turriff, 18, route 1, West DePere, received possible skull fracture and broken shoulder, cuts and bruises when his car went out of control for 456 feet on County Trunk S about three miles east of Freedom at 1 a.m. today.

Turriff's 1958 hardtop model left the road for 150 feet, hit a culvert and traveled 66 feet to a town road, skidded 36 feet across it, bounced some 66 feet into the air and rolled over for 72 feet. The car was demolished, County Patrolman E. A. Welch said.

Air Force Acts To Carry Out Ike's Order

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force has taken the first concrete step to carry out President Eisenhower's order to reduce the number of wives and children living overseas with American servicemen.

The Eisenhower order is aimed at curbing a heavy flow of gold from this country.

The Air Force Friday set a deadline of next Feb. 1 for overseas travel orders for dependents of its uniformed personnel.

After that date, the Air Force said, those going to overseas assignments must go without their families.

Some Exceptions

The Air Force said exceptions "will have to be granted for humanitarian considerations, hardships and peculiarities of selected Air Force units."

Secretary of the Navy William B. Franke said detailed Navy plans are now being prepared to carry out the gradual reduction of overseas dependents.

Army Secretary Wilber M. Brucker, for the second day in a row, Friday implied that the order might serve to weaken American military effectiveness abroad.

Brucker told a Retired Officers Association convention the presence of service families overseas is evidence to friend and foe that U.S. "forward strategy is not a fly-by-night arrangement." Previously he had expressed concern over the effect of the order on morale of overseas troops.

The Army has 248,788 dependents overseas. The Air Force has 197,438, and the Navy and Marines have 37,837.

The Eisenhower order calls for the total number of overseas dependents to be reduced by 284,000—about half the total.

Confidence Game Worked by Boy, 13

A boy about 13 years old apparently is working a confidence game racket on Appleton subscribers of a Milwaukee morning newspaper, police said today.

The boy several times has approached subscribers in the northeast section of the city and told them he is the new carrier and collected for the paper. When the regular carrier comes around, the subscriber complains.

The youthful confidence man is described as 5-feet, 3-inches tall, dark haired and usually dressed in blue denim trousers and a black leather jacket.

Rep. Halleck Notes Coalition Importance In Next Session

RENNSELAER, Ind. (AP) — A conservative coalition will be an important force in the next session of congress, says Rep. Charles A. Halleck, R-Ind., house minority leader.

Halleck said in an interview in his home town here yesterday that the attitude of the coalition group will hinge on what is best for America.

"But there will be no blocking of legislation important to the nation," he added. "Instead it will seek sanity in the operations of government."

Halleck said he would see Rep. Howard W. Smith, D-Va., house rules committee chairman, when he goes back to Washington, but had no immediate plans to see him before the next congress convenes in January.

"I expect business with him to be as usual," Halleck said.

Rep. Smith is a leader of the southern conservatives.

The Democrats have a majority in congress but could be outnumbered by a coalition of Republicans and conservative Democrats from the south.

Cuba Seen as Point of Origin Of Red Attacks

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — It was inevitable that immediately after the presidential election some action would be taken with respect to Communist - directed military operations in this hemisphere. The orders issued by President Eisenhower to the U.S. Navy to assist the governments of Guatemala and Nicaragua are in line with historic principles of international law. It is significant that the two governments requested the military aid. It is important to note the exact language of the White House announcement, which was as follows:

Lawrence

"In response to the request of the governments of Guatemala and Nicaragua, surface and air units of the U.S. Navy are in a position in which they could assist these governments, should it become necessary, to seek out and prevent intervention on the part of Communist-directed elements in the internal affairs of Guatemala and Nicaragua through the landing of armed forces or supplies from abroad."

The phrase "communist-directed elements" justifies the application of the principle of the Monroe Doctrine, which proclaims American purpose to resist any attempt by a European power to add territory by conquest in this hemisphere.

Watching Cuba

Presumably this action means that ships at sea or airplanes carrying armed forces or supplies will be intercepted before they can land on the coasts of either Guatemala. The Communists are not likely to make any such attempt now that they know there will be resistance by the United States.

The Organization of American States in recent years has accepted and further strengthened the principle of the Monroe Doctrine. But each nation may at any time on its own request ask aid from a sister nation to ward off an invasion. What Guatemala and Nicaragua have done is in conformity with established principles of law in this hemisphere.

Everybody knows that Cuba is the point of origin of forces hostile to the Central American republics, so it is likely that a close watch will be maintained by the U.S. Navy's airplanes on any vessels or planes which leave Cuban shores for any destination in neighboring countries. This kind of surveillance will gradually increase and could mean the stoppage and search of vessels of any other country whose cargoes or passengers are destined for ports in Nicaragua and Guatemala.

Latin American Policy

The incident is more important in a broader sense. It means that American patience with Castro's antics is about exhausted and that from now on his regime will be held to a strict accountability for any military movements that threaten the internal peace of other countries.

The decision to go ahead with military measures in Latin America was one that would have caused embarrassment if taken during the recent political campaign. It would have been charged by the Democrats that the Republican administration was creating a

Blaze Destroys Catholic Church

RHINELANDER (AP)—A spectacular fire Friday destroyed St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, a 60-year-old wooden structure in the downtown area.

The Rev. Joseph Himmelsbach, the pastor, estimated damage at around $125,000. Altar equipment, including contents of the tabernacle, was saved along with vestments in the sacristy.

Church officials said services probably will be held in the parish school temporarily.

Cause of the fire was not determined. The alarm was turned in by a woman praying in the church, built on the site where a similar building had gone up in flames.

The blaze apparently started in the basement and worked its way between walls to the roof.

The local fire department was aided by detachments from Tomahawk and Three Lakes.

Theft Specialists

"crisis" in order to influence votes. The Republicans were cautious lest they precipitate some kind of armed conflict which would spoil their record of avoiding military operations.

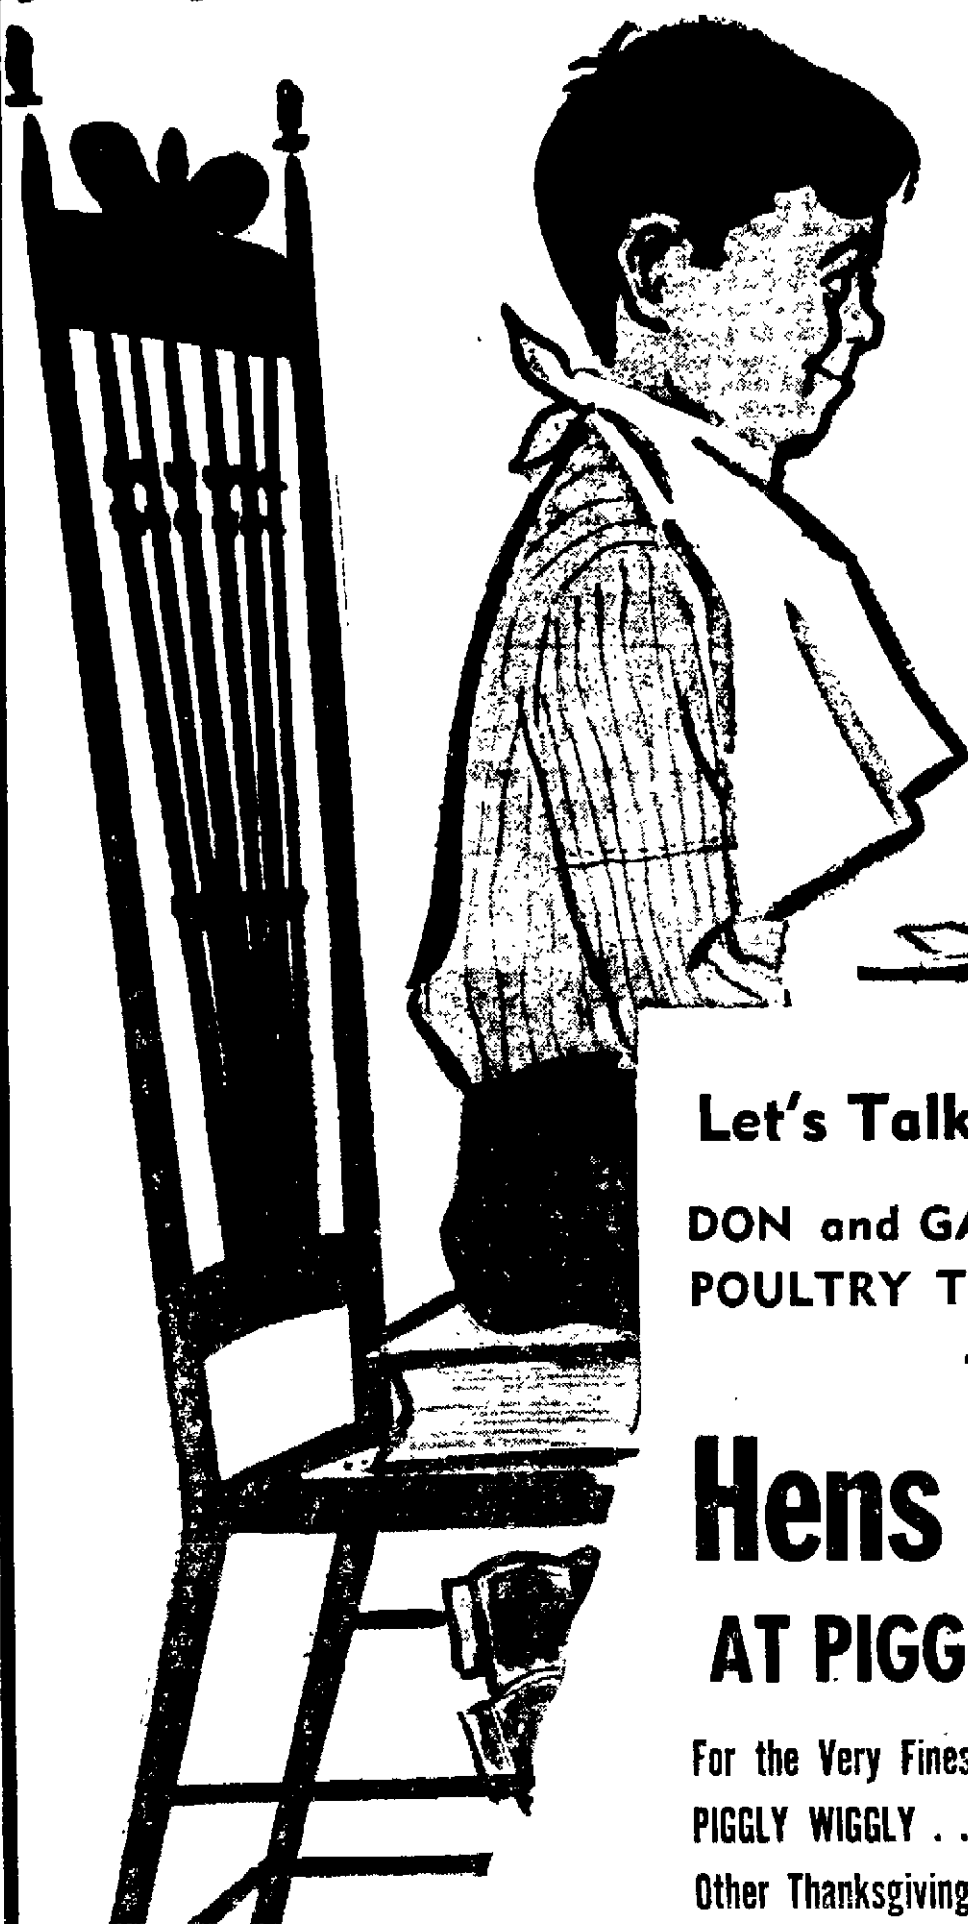

But the period of self-imposed restraint now seems to be over. The government has ordered military action to stop Castro and his lieutenants from seizing, in behalf of communism, any other Latin American countries. For what has been announced as a policy in the Caribbean applies equally to any similar requests that may come hereafter from South American countries.

May Send Troops

But what of Cuba itself? The day is not far distant when the United States, acting in accordance with accepted principles of international law, may have to land troops to take possession of American properties in Cuba seized by the Castro government. While the Havana authorities have promised compensation, the bonds they offer in payment are worthless. The United States has a right to recapture the properties of its own citizens and hold them until such time as satisfactory arrangements are made to pay for them.

The broader question of how such a step will be received by the Cuban people—that is, whether it will be misinterpreted as an alleged American interference with the rights of the Cuban government, which has been recognized as a legitimate government by the United States—is one that will be debated before any decision is reached here. But if the Castro government persists in its confiscatory policies, it seems certain that a formal rupture in diplomatic relations will ensue. European and Latin American countries would then be asked similarly to withdraw diplomatic recognition of the Havana government. This would indicate to the people of Cuba that their present government no longer has the confidence of the other governments of the free world.

Save by Shifting Income, Expenses

BY SYLVIA PORTER

You have a little more than a month left in which to cut the taxes you owe on your 1960 income and, "By Dec. 31, I suspect millions of taxpayers could save money if they knew what steps to take," says the Research Institute of America's tax chief, Leon Gold.

Porter

If the following questions apply to you, study the advice in the answers.

Q. Are you married or head of a household this year, but anticipating a change in circumstances which will end your in- come-splitting privilege next year?

A. If so, you can save substantial tax dollars by throwing income into 1960 and postponing expenses into 1961, for this year you'll be taxed at the lower married or head of household rates, and next year at the higher single taxpayer rates. As an illustration of what this can mean, the amount of tax owed by a single taxpayer with $8,000 of taxable income filing a separate return is $1,960; the amount owed by a married taxpayer filing a joint return is $1,680; and by a head of household, $1,820.

Q. Are you single, expecting to be married in 1961?

A. Do the opposite. Shift income into 1961, accelerate expenses into 1960.

Q. Are you single, helping to support your parents who maintain their own household?

A. You may be entitled to the head-of-household tax break in addition to the $600 dependency credit if you handle your contributions in a way permitting you to claim at least one of your parents as a dependent. For this you must meet this test: (a) you must contribute over half the cost of maintaining the household for your father or mother, and (b) the gross income of your father or mother must be less than $600, and (c) your parents must not file a joint return.

Don't lose out because you make a blanket contribution to both parents and your payments don't provide half the support of either.

The same payments for the benefit of your mother alone might qualify her as a dependent. Don't lose all the tax advantage because the parent you plan to claim as a dependent earns a bit more than $600. If the earnings are held below $600, you may get the head-of-household reduction and the dependency credit.

Q. Are you expecting a substantial raise in 1961?

A. Try to postpone expenses to next year. If your situation is the opposite, speed up expenses into 1960.

Q. Are you in business and expecting to buy equipment for use in your operations next year?

A. You can save quite spectacular amounts in taxes by buying part of the equipment before Dec. 31 and the other part after Jan. 1. This is because you are permitted a one-shot depreciation deduction of 20 per cent of the cost of your property up to a limit of $20,000 on joint returns in the year you buy it—in addition to the ordinary depreciation you are allowed. If this is your case check with a tax expert at once.

Let's say you need $40,000 of machinery, you're filing a joint return and you buy all the machinery in January. Your first-year depreciation deduction will be limited to 20 per cent of $20,000, or $4,000, in 1961. But let's say that instead you buy $20,000 of it in December, the rest in January. You can claim a full 20 per cent fast first-year depreciation of $4,000 on the property you buy in December and another full 20 per cent fast first-year depreciation deduction of $4,000 on what you buy in January.

Your one-shot depreciation on this property is $8,000 instead of $4,000 and you can depreciate the remainder of your cost, less salvage, under one of the regular methods of depreciation.

A key secret to saving money on taxes is timing, and now is the time to act.

Driver Cleared of Charges Stemming From Fatal Crash

NEW YORK (AP) — A magistrate has dismissed all charges against a motorist whose car plowed into pedestrians at busy Fifth Avenue and 42nd street, killing one woman and injuring 10 other persons.

Morton Kirsch, 56, lost control of his auto Oct. 8, hitting the pedestrians and then a bus. Three women were knocked under the bus by Kirsch's car. Florence Noren, 75, was fatally injured. Police charged Kirsch with failing to observe a signal light, failing to keep in the right traffic lane, and operating a car with defective brakes.

Magistrate Edward J. Chapman ruled Friday there was insufficient evidence to support the charges against Kirsch.

Use Imagination to Create Centerpiece

Table decorations for that abundant feast on Thanksgiving day or for parties during this holiday season need not be elaborate. A centerpiece, both inexpensive and simple in design, but attractive, can be created by the hostess in a matter of minutes.

Imaginative use of fall fruits, vegetables, flowers, greens and candles will provide a score of interesting centerpieces. Head of the Post-Crescent photography department, Andrew J. Mueller, can prove this point. Last Thanksgiving his family's table was decorated with a centerpiece made of flowering kale, a leafy green plant with its deep purple veins colorfully accented. The kale, which grows in Mr. Mueller's backyard, resembles a leafy cabbage plant.

Mum Centerpiece
Other centerpieces may be made by combining light and dark toned mums which provide an interesting contrast. Cutting the stems of darker mums shorter will enhance the effect of the centerpiece, which, surrounded by a circle of fall leaves, artificial if the real ones aren't available, will bring the hues of season to the table.

Or, if the hostess desires, fruits and fall vegetables can replace the circle of leaves. The fruits can be of any variety, but it's nice to include a few bunches of grapes which will lend graceful balance to the arrangements. In dian corn, small and unusually shaped gourds, chestnuts and pine cones are other items which can be included in a harvest-themed centerpiece.

Symbolic Touch
A symbolic touch might be added to the Thanksgiving table with a Pilgrim's hat centerpiece. It

Say Vows In Lutheran Ceremony

Miss Marilyn Lemke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lemke, Sherwood, became the bride of Richard Stecker, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Stecker, Hilbert, at 4 p.m. Saturday.

The Rev. Martin A. Schneider officiated at the ceremony at St. Peter Lutheran Church, Hilbert. Miss Elaine Lemke, Sherwood, was her sister's maid of honor and Misses Joy Ann and Lois Stecker, Hilbert, sisters of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Susan Teetzen, Pelican Lake, was the flower girl and Brian O'Dell, Neenah, was ring bearer.

Best man was William Kielgas, Hilbert, and groomsmen were Curtis Teetzen, Pelican Lake, brother-in-law of the bride, and Marvin Lemke, Sherwood, brother of the bride. Gerald Felauer, cousin of the bridegroom, Appleton, and Alfred Lemke, cousin of the bride, Greenleaf, shared ushering duties.

A wedding supper was served at St. Peter Lutheran Church hall in Hollandtown. The newlyweds will reside at route 4, Appleton, when they return from a wedding trip to northern Wisconsin.

The young people are graduates of Hilbert High School. Mrs. Stecker is employed at Aid Association for Lutherans and her husband works at Neenah Paper Division of Kimberly-Clark Corp.

Remove Spots On Wall Paper

Soiled spots on wall paper can be removed by rubbing with a clean cloth dipped into dry powdered borax. A greasy spot can be removed by covering it with a blotter and holding a warm iron back of the blotter for a few moments.

Leafy flowering kale surrounded by tokay grapes and red apples provides the centerpiece for this Thanksgiving dinner table. Individual kale leaves are the base for the colorful molded gelatin salad. The flowering kale, which is nearly extinct, is grown by Andrew J. Mueller, head of the Post-Crescent photo department, in his backyard. The plant may be kept one or two weeks in the house before its leaves begin to wilt.

Your Problems

Family Style Dining Isn't Meant to Feed Those at Home

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our club members contribute every week to a Night Out Fund. Once a year we girls have dinner in a nice restaurant and it's fun for everyone. Last week was our annual night out. There's been a lot of talk back and forth on the telephone about something that happened. We went to a lovely place that serves smorgasbord—all you can eat for $1.85. Several girls went back a second time, which was perfectly O.K.—I think. Some of the girls who went back, however, piled up their plates as high as they could. Then they wrapped the chicken and ham in paper napkins and put it in their purses to take home.

It is true the restaurant advertises "All you can eat for $1.85," so these women claim it was all right. Was it?—Don't Know. Dear Don't: When a restaurant advertises "All you can eat for $1.85," they don't mean "All you can carry out." The women who piled food on their plates to take home were guilty of bad manners.

I once knew a woman who ruined the inside of a $35 purse because she wanted to take home a piece of 30 cent pastry she couldn't finish at the table. She learned that a cheap stunt can sometimes be pretty expensive. I know—because the woman was me.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband passed away when our son was very young. My big aim in life was to see that Wilfred got a good education. I succeeded. He will be graduating from a fine eastern school in the spring.

I only want one thing from him, and I'd like to know if I have the right to insist on it. I think I do. He does not agree.

I'm a lonesome person who has a difficult time making friends. I want Wilfred to marry a girl from this city—someone who has parents here—so I will have the pleasure of associating with her people. I have no particular girl in mind, Ann, I just want him to marry someone local. Is this asking too much?—S.C.

Dear S. C.: Yes. Too much. Your son should not feel under obligation to select as his wife a girl whose family can provide you with company. For your own sake, as well as his, tell him you've thought it over and changed your mind. Then—please do.

DEAR ANN: Your advice is usually excellent, but occasionally I suspect you make a ridiculous statement to see what response you'll get. Well, I've fallen into your tender trap. I want to protest against overly clean housekeepers. You said you'd prefer the super-clean nut to the super-dirty one.

I happen to know some of those 6 a.m. to 11 p.m. dirt-chasers. They don't even know the name of their governor. They think it's more important to know there's not a fingerprint on the wall.

Have you noticed what the kids are like from these antiseptic homes? They always have colds and they're afraid to play with other kids for fear they'll get dirty and catch it. A woman who can't leave the dishes in the sink and go to a movie with her husband is a poor wife. Thanks for listening. I think I'd better go sweep the kitchen floor before someone falls down in the garbage.—No Neurotic

Dear No: I don't have to set tender traps to get "response." Extremes are always bad and the overly clean housekeeper is as sick as the dirty one. Excuse me while I go wipe a fingerprint off the wall.

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "How To Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request twenty cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (Copyright, 1960)

Odd and Unusual Window Shades Solve Problem

Some of the most attractive rooms have high, narrow windows which often present problems to the homemaker. But with the use of decorator window shades, this what is needed. The paper should be white, off-white, or the palest idea is to replace the conventional drapery-curtain duo with "curtain shades." These window shades are made of handsome and off-beat shade cloths such as embroidered lawn, boucle, shantung, rough textures or stripes. To give an added touch, it would be fun to use an unusual shade pull, such as a bamboo teapot handle or a ring trimmed with artificial flowers.

Kenneth Roloff, Barbara Little Wed in Kaukauna Ceremony

Immanuel United Church of Christ, Kaukauna, was the setting at 7 p.m. Saturday for the marriage of Miss Barbara Ann Little and Kenneth Lee Roloff.

The Rev. Roger Wentz officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony uniting the daughter of Mrs. Paul Little, 605 Main Ave., Kaukauna, and the late Mr. Little, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roloff, 712 Blackwell St., Kaukauna.

Attending the bride were Miss Karen Krumm, Kaukauna, as maid of honor, Miss Carol Roloff, Kaukauna, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. William Radke, Appleton.

Richard Busse, Colorado, was best man and Harold and Robert Roloff, Kaukauna, were groomsmen. Ushering duties were performed by Patrick Casperson, Donald Kroll and John Whitman, all of Kaukauna.

Crystal Room of Conway Hotel was the setting for the reception, after which the newlyweds left for a theater trip to New York City.

Mrs. Roloff is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi and Zeta Phi Eta. She teaches at Kaukauna High School. Her husband graduated from Wisconsin State College, Stevens Point, and is employed in the Kaukauna Public School system.

The newlyweds will reside at 135½ Taylor St., Kaukauna.

Today's Etiquette

NO GRATITUDE

Last year my husband and I visited friends for a day and a night. After returning home, I sent a gift and a bread and butter letter. This couple has two teenage children and we have always remembered them with gifts on their birthdays. I have never received a thank you for any of these things. Should I continue with birthday gifts? And how about Christmas cards which we have been exchanging in the past?

Louise Davis Answers: Inasmuch as your hostess or her children never take time to acknowledge gifts or any special favor you show them, I think you may as well discontinue the birthday presents. This is a good time to call a halt. When one gets no thanks or acknowledgment, it takes the joy out of giving. It is high time that the mother of these children teaches them to write their own thank you notes. Assuming that you don't wish to sever your friendship with the family, I suggest that you keep on with the Christmas cards. They are in a different category.

CORNY NOTE PAPER
My daughter wants to buy some stationery that sounds pretty garish to me. She says that all her friends use the kind decorated with flowers or pictures and that they also used paper in various colors. Is this accepted today?

Louise Davis Answers: Your daughter would be on the safe side to get plain note paper without any such embellishments which often present problems to the homemaker. But with the use of decorator window shades, this what is needed. The paper should be white, off-white, or the palest idea is to replace the conventional drapery-curtain duo with "curtain shades." These window shades are made of handsome and off-beat shade cloths such as embroidered lawn, boucle, shantung, rough textures or stripes.

Spinsters Spree at Gala Dance at Masonic Temple

Georgia Gile, Bob Kreiling, Audrey Ziesemer and Bruce Downie pause momentarily upon entering to check on their tickets. The informal dance is an annual event of the King's Daughters Little Women's Circle.

Little Women's Circle of The King's Daughters held its annual festive girls' bid dance Saturday evening at Masonic Temple. This year's theme of the Spinster Spree was "Pagoda Paradise." Proceeds will be donated to charity. Above, Peter Kafura helped his date, Camille Rudolf, with her coat as they entered the temple for the evening's festivities. Sue Miller, left, fastens an over-sized corsage on Tom Callaway's lapel. The young women worked many hours on the corsages for their dates and ideas ranged from pheasants perched on white mums to cow bells attached to bright blue ribbon. Below, Miss Sue Selle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Selle, 821 N. Appleton St., entertained friends at a cocktail party preceding the dance. Gathered around the buffet table are, from left, Pat O'Connell, Karla Gutreuter, Dave DeCock, Barbara Barry, co-hostess, Miss Selle and Dave Goehler.

Party-Goers Jane Peabody and Tom Laux swing along to the music at the Spinster Spree Saturday evening at the Masonic Temple. Proceeds from the Little Women's Circle's annual dance will be donated to charity.

Gravy Important On Thanksgiving

With Thanksgiving Day just around the corner, cooks had better start brushing up on the art of making gravy. Mix the fat and the boat or bowl so it will stay hot flour over a medium gas flame, for the first trip round the table.

Pearly Shoulders

When you plan to wear a low-cut dress, try "buffing" your throat and shoulders. The finish is that of a pearl, glowing and smooth.

The first step in buffing is a sudsy brush-scrub. Work until the skin glows; then rise thoroughly and dry briskly.

In taking the second step, you have a choice of methods: Dust spread it in an upward direction on mauve face powder or white with the palms of the hands. After talcum with a fluffy puff, being it dries, begin to buff. You may sure to cover every area your arms are to be exposed, powder the top sides.

Now buff the powdered skin with the palms of your hands, using the same quick, firm motions as for polishing silver. Continue until no residue of powder rubs off on your hands.

Use a liquid make-up blender. Before applying blender to the arms, it is necessary to remove any fuzz.)

For the smoothest results, apply blender in generous dots and then spread it in an upward direction on mauve face powder or white with the palms of the hands. After talcum with a fluffy puff, being it dries, begin to buff. You may sure to cover every area your arms are to be exposed, powder the top sides.

Never fear, neither the powder nor blender will mark clothing. It clings to you, not to your dress or the palms of your hands, using the same quick, firm motions as

29 Composers Guests At Musical Weekend

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months! In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

Quiet Music

Donald Jenni, of the DePaul University faculty, contributed a Frescamento, heard next. The work was minty, lightly sketched, and full of delicate telegraphy. It was the sort of simplicity which was achieved only through a most complicated creative process, however.

Neil McKay's "Fantasy on a Quiet Theme" was created under exceptionally colorful circumstances. There is a musical philanthropist who holds the forthright notion that modern music is naturally too loud (just as all dramatic sopranos are naturally too fat.) He gives an annual award for quiet contemporary music, and McKay (now at Superior State College) came up with a winner in this item. His Fantasy is full of attractive themes, simply stated; yet it reveals a significant talent and sophisticated taste.

The afternoon concluded with a Rondo For Civic Orchestra by

Save Corrections for Most Important Matters

BY ANGELO PATRI

All day long, Susan's mother had been watching over her, correcting what was wrong in whatever she did. Susan felt helpless. Whatever she tried to do was sure to bring a—"Look, You've left a dirty corner there. Why didn't you straighten that edge. Stand straight. First thing you know you'll be bent over like Old Mother Stilton. You shouldn't say

"Hello" over the phone. It's not good form." It was Saturday and Susan had planned to do other things than what her mother ordered, rain having intervened and kept her in the house. She was thinking about her lost day and the troubles it had brought her when her mother said, "Set the table." With a smothered sigh Susan began placing the silver and her mother called, "No, no, no. Where's your head? Didn't you remember we made pie for dessert? Use your head and put the forks on."

Without a word Susan laid down the spoon she had in her hand, walked out of the room and in a moment, out of the house, closing the door behind her with definite emphasis. Needless to say Mother was not feeling well that day but neither was Susan. Anyway, wasn't Mother only trying to teach Susan right ways of doing things? Isn't any Mother doing that when she corrects what a child is doing wrong? She is, and many a time she might better not have noticed it but passed it by in silence.

How many irritating things a child does in a day any mother knows too well but how many of them are worth talking about? Far more than those that warrant immediate correction.

A boy comes down dressed for some occasion wearing a startling necktie and his mother cries out in exasperation: "Go upstairs this minute and take that awful necktie off and wear a decent one. Wherever did you get it?"

Mother Pounces
A daughter comes home from school or a movie, imitating someone she has seen or admired in speech or manner and at once her mother pounces on her as if she had broken a commandment.

Given time and a good example such vagaries vanish. Making them matters of importance only irritates the young person, makes him resentful of his parent's lack of understanding and helps not at all. A great deal of energy, not to mention ill will, can be saved on both sides if the older person does not see so much and does not feel obliged to say so much but keeps correction and remonstrance for important matters like morals.

Angelo Patri offers readers leaflets on a variety of subjects concerning child training. If you would like to have his leaflet P-21, "How to Talk to the Baby," send 10 cents in coin to him, in care of this paper, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N.Y.

Miss Alice Dresser, Appleton Public Library children's librarian, talked to scouts of Troop 67 Wednesday. Listening to her review of an award winning book are Miss Stephanie Kuehn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kuehn; Miss Molly Spanagel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spanagel; Miss Anne Joseph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Joseph; and Miss Ann Rosebush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rosebush.

Sheinwold Spot Card Important To Slam Bid

Fortunetellers would have us believe that the nine of hearts means money and good position. It certainly had something to do with declarer's position in this slam hand.

West opened the deuce of diamonds, and declarer had to ruff with dummy's ten of hearts. He was happy to find dummy void of diamonds, but not quite so happy to ruff with high trumps.

South's next play was a thoughtful jack of hearts from dummy. East had to win at once with the king, and the return lead of the king of diamonds forced dummy to ruff with the ace of trumps.

Worst Over

The worst was now over. South reached his hand with the ace of spades to draw trumps with the queen and nine. That's why the nine of hearts was so important — it enabled South to draw trumps.

Declarer next took the top clubs and ruffed a club to set up the suit. One discard was all South needed for his slam contract.

Incidentally, you may wonder why declarer led the jack of hearts from dummy instead of getting to his hand to try a finesse in trumps. South could afford to give up a trump trick immediately but could not afford a delay. If an opponent held K-x-x of hearts rather than only K-x, he could defeat the slam by refusing the first trump trick. South wanted to make it easy for East or West to take the first trump if he happened to hold K-x-x.

Daily Question

As dealer, you hold: S-10 8 7 2, H-K 7, D-A K 1 0 9 6 3, C-8. What do you say?

Answer. Bid one diamond. You have only 10 points in high cards, but can count at least three additional points for the fine distribution. This is enough for an opening bid when you have a comfortable rebid available. (Copyright 1960)

Tip on Cooking Shrimp, Lobster

Here are a few pointers worth remembering when you boil lobster or shrimp: You can hold down the amount of humidity escaping into the kitchen if you cover large lobster-pot of boiling water with a lid. The minute the boiling point is reached, turn the flame to simmer, add the shellfish and cover again. This reduces the evaporation of water from the cooking food. The minute seafood turns pink, it is done. Overcooking will toughen it and add unnecessary heat and moisture to your room.

Thanksgiving Dinner Citrus Fruit Stars With Holiday Turkey

Instead of the creamed onions which are often associated with the Thanksgiving turkey, we might like to use onion cups to hold a creamed vegetable. These are attractive when arranged around the bird.

Onion Cups

Cut 1/2-inch slice from tops of onions and remove thin outer layers. Cover with salted water and boil uncovered 30 minutes or until centers are just tender when pricked with a fork, and remove from water. Cut out centers and chop. Combine with cheese sauce and beans, and fill onion cups with mixture. Place in baking pan. Bake in 325-degree oven about 15 minutes, or until filling bubbles.

Spanish Radish Salad
Toss two cups sliced radishes with the following salad dressing: one-half cup vinegar, one-half cup Spanish olive oil, one-half teaspoon salt, a sprinkling of pepper and a tablespoon of capers (these are optional). Place on shredded lettuce, garnish with strips of pimento or canned red sweet peppers.

Tomato Sauce Good With Green Beans
Combine cooked beans with one small can tomato sauce. Add minced onion if desired. Heat well and serve topped with grated cheese.

Cranberry Topping
The fruit will be very juicy, so set each of the grapefruit halves.

Relishes for Fish Use Cranberries

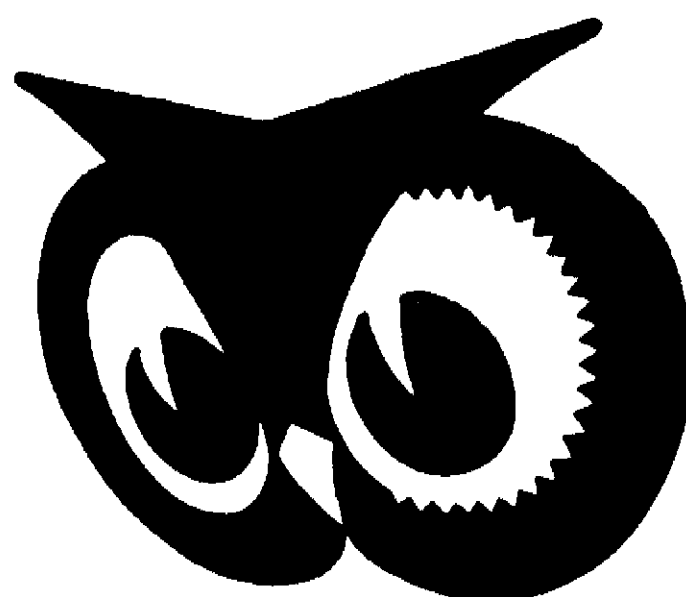

The abundant cranberry is deli- cious as a relish for serving with fish and shellfish. Here are two recipes created especially for fish dishes.

Cranberry Relish
1 can whole cranberry sauce
1/4 cup French dressing
2 teaspoons horseradish
Combine all ingredients; mix well. Chill. Makes about one pint of relish. This relish goes espe- cially well with such seafoods as scallops and shrimp.

Cranberry Wedges
1 can cranberry jelly sauce
1 lemon
Cut cranberry sauce into thick slices. Cut each slice into four wedges. Slice lemon crosswise and cut each slice in two parts. Stand cranberry wedges on round- ed ends on a relish dish. Slit top of each wedge to hold lemon slice. Insert lemon slice. Recipe makes 12 wedges. These are excellent with pan-fried or baked fish.

Economic Power Seems Destined For Foreign Programs

BY WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Soviet affairs experts conjure up a frightening picture of the use the Kremlin might make of the U.S.S.R.'s burgeoning economic strength.

From one standpoint, it matters little when or whether the Russians make good their boast of overtaking United States production. The key word is trouble, and there is plenty of trouble in store for the United States in any event.

There is no argument with the proposition that Soviet economic power is rising swiftly. The big question is: What does the Kremlin intend to do with this power and what does it hope to achieve?

Will it mean more for the Soviet consumer—and the risk of changing the monolithic dictatorship structure of Soviet rule? Will it be thrown into military adventuring? Or will it be used in another kind of bid for world domination through enormous investment in economic aid to underdeveloped countries?

All signs point to the latter. No qualified student of Soviet affairs says the Kremlin intends world conquest by military means. But few doubt that it intends world conquest by economic means, with the use of vast productive capacities channeled and concentrated upon political goals.

The Russians now say they expect to fulfill their current seven-year plan a year ahead of schedule, in 1964. Their newest published estimates are that they will there catch up with the United States production in those years.

These hopes seem much exaggerated. If consumer goods are ruled out of the picture, Soviet production might overtake American by 1973.

No Waiting

But there's small comfort in that. There is little expectation that the Kremlin intends waiting until its over-all production catches up. Already—at the expense of the Soviet consumer—it shows signs of preparing to throw enough Soviet resources into foreign economic aid programs to affect significantly the political behavior of emerging countries.

Soviet economic power already is a potent weapon of politics in Kremlin foreign policy, backed by an evident Kremlin confidence in Soviet military might.

The experts are not about to reach for the panic button, however. Another side to the coin is this: The Kremlin is loaded with its own contradictions, which can inhibit and interfere with its offensives abroad to expand communism.

Power Drag

The U.S.S.R. cannot veer away from a wasteful, inefficient system for fear that the ruling dictatorship's concentrated power will be diluted. Centralization of power long has adversely affected the Soviet economy, and there is strong pressure from Soviet technocrats now in favor of more and more decentralization.

Russians have sensed the emergence of a new sort of leadership which finds itself having to compromise between needs of the Communist party's power structure and the rising demands of an educated population.

The Kremlin is demanding more and more production per worker and more and more quality in production. To help achieve this, it has instituted systems of labor incentives and bonuses along with high wages in some spheres. But this applies new ule, in 1964. Their newest published estimates are that they will there catch up with the United States production to absorb it. Close ob- by 1968 in those production servers are confident that, given

Reckless Drivers Pay in Clintonville

CLINTONVILLE — Donald H. Wendt, 43, route 2, Appleton, paid $52.75 on a reckless driving charge. He was arrested Friday by Clintonville police.

Robert E. Ryckman, 17, route 3, Shawano, admitted reckless driving Saturday before Justice Harold Hedtke. He was arrested by Clintonville police Friday. Being a minor, Ryckman was not fined but had to pay court costs and had his driver's license suspended for six months.

Roy Fred Lutewitz, 19, route 1, Marion, paid $12.75 for having a non-registered vehicle. He was arrested by the Clintonville police Friday.

sufficient time, this pressure will begin to change the structure of Soviet society.

But they add a word of warning: The hierarchy would rather slow down the rate of Soviet growth deliberately than take the chances with reforms which family breakfast can be strained might bring about dangerous and thinned for the invalid. The change. The party leadership family may enjoy the same jelly does not want its all-pervading in-illed broth or fruit juice that was, fluence over Soviet life to be weakened.

And even if the Soviet economic growth rate were slowed to half may have a somewhat changed what it is now, in the words of sense of taste; mild flavors are one competent observer of the best to tempt a lagging appetite.

The Visiting Nurse Says Food for Convalescent Can Be Same as Rest of Family's

A convalescent diet can sometimes be the same as the family diet with changes to suite the patient's needs.

The patient feels less set apart if the food in his diet is similar to the food he's accustomed to.

Perhaps some familiar food must be in a different form, as when fruit must be strained or taken as juice, or vegetables must be sieved.

Frequently, the food prepared for the family meal needs little change to suit a convalescent's diet. The same meat may do, for both but without the gravy for growth deliberately than take the chances with reforms which family breakfast can be strained might bring about dangerous and thinned for the invalid. The change. The party leadership family may enjoy the same jelly does not want its all-pervading in-illed broth or fruit juice that was, fluence over Soviet life to be weakened.

And even if the Soviet economic growth rate were slowed to half may have a somewhat changed what it is now, in the words of sense of taste; mild flavors are one competent observer of the best to tempt a lagging appetite.

Moscow scene, the Communists An invalid seldom has an incli- would "still have enough to be nation for strong, definite flavors, a source of interminable trouble They may even be unpleasant to to us whenever and wherever him.

Food may take on extra importance in an invalid's day. Mealtime breaks a dull routine; therefore, little details of taste and consistency may become magnified.

Sometimes convalescents feel that eating is too much effort and it may take a fairly long time to build up an appetite following an illness. This is particularly true of children.

Foods should be prepared so that it is easy to handle and saves effort in eating. Fruits, vegetables and meats are best served in bite-size pieces so they won't require cutting.

The setting of the invalid's tray may influence his willingness to eat.

Small Servings

Attractive appearance of food and cleanliness, and orderliness of the tray are important. Place foods neatly in dishes with a little colorful garnish to enhance both eye and appetite appeal.

The tray itself should be sturdy but light in weight. It should be big enough to hold food and dishes comfortably without crowding, but not so large that little foods look "lost" on it.

Food tastes best at the right temperatures. Hot foods stay hot longer in individual casseroles. An inverted cereal bowl makes an excellent hot dish cover. Cold foods stay cold longer if they are chilled in the serving dish, then put on the serving tray at the last minute.

Small dainty servings encourage the patient to eat. Many times it is wise to serve dessert on a separate small tray, so that the invalid isn't overwhelmed with the sight of too much food at once.

Tasteful decoration helps make a tray meal appealing. A fresh flower, a tiny growing plant, a nosegay of greens, a small surprise, or a humorous clipping on the tray of an adult convalescent may add a note of interest and enjoyment to the meal. On the other hand, too much decoration, over-garnishing of food, or over-crowding of the tray may take away appetite.

Abdullah Doesn't Trust Banks; Victim No Longer Trusts Him

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Thor L. Berthen, 60, told police he was soaking up sunshine on his front steps when along came this sailor who said his name was Abdullah and asked directions.

They got to talking and it seemed natural when Abdullah said he didn't trust banks and showed Berthen a large roll of bills.

Berthen argued about whether banks can be trusted, and ended by betting Abdullah $1,500 that they could. To make absolutely sure he went down to the bank and withdrew his savings of $2,202.21, which Abdullah counted and wrapped in a newspaper.

He handed the newspaper to Berthen and left. Berthen unwrapped the newspaper. It was empty.

Carbon Monoxide Threat In Hunter's Trailers, Cars

BY CARL N. NEUPERT, M.D.
State Health Officer

The trailer looked quite cozy—large enough for two, well insulated, and equipped with a fine little space heater.

Just the thing for that weekend hunting trip . . . except for one small item. That exception was the unsafe heater—the same type which last year caused the deaths of at least a dozen hunters in Wisconsin and nearby states.

The trouble with these heaters was that the vents—improperly designed and constructed—allowed deadly carbon monoxide to accumulate in the trailers, instead of being drawn out into the air.

Carbon monoxide is a poisonous gas that cannot be detected by sight, taste, or smell. It is produced by the incomplete burning of solid, liquid, or gaseous fuel. Attacking without warning, it kills by depriving the body of its fresh air (oxygen) supply. Often a headache, dizziness, and a sleepy feeling are the only symptoms. And it can take as few as five minutes for this to happen.

Ventilation

For this reason it's a good idea to check your ventilation during the cold weather months—no matter where you are. Carbon monoxide can be just as dangerous in a cabin or car as in a trailer.

If you do own a trailer, venting for space and hot water heaters and gas refrigerators should consist of at least a three-inch duct through its roof. You also will need a hole, at least 10 inches square, in the floor near the heater to provide air for combustion. It's also wise to keep your garage doors open when idling your car motor, to keep the car windows slightly open at all times, and to provide a dependable means of supplying fresh air when operating furnaces, fireplaces, and space or water heaters.

Ventilation, in fact, is the best

MILWAUKEE — The Packers teetered between their greatest comeback victory in history and their bitterest defeat of all time in County Stadium Sunday.

It turned out to be a heart-breaking 33 to 31 loss for Green Bay and a miracle win for the Rams. The Packers were behind 30 to 10 when they stormed back with each with a score—four field goals and three touchdowns. Green Bay atoned for all of those sins but one with that rip-roaring comeback—three touchdowns on drives of 80, 55 and 50 yards. The seventh and final mistake was Hornung's fumble that kept the Packers from possibly freezing out the clock and

Oriole Shortstop
Polls 22 of the BOSTON (AP) — Ron Hansen, wide-ranging shortstop for Baltimore's exciting "Baby Birds," and a big factor in their drive to prominence, today was named the American League's rookie of the year for 1960.

He won it hands-down, polling 22 of the 24 votes cast by a three touchdowns in eight minutes and 54 seconds to go ahead, 31-30, in the fourth quarter. That was a fantastic comeback.

Hornung Fumbles
Then, when victory seemed inevitable, Paul Hornung, a 19-point scorer this day, missed a 23-yard field goal that would have produced a 34-30 lead and later fumbled to set off the Rams' winning-field goal drive with 3:44 left.

The Rams moved 58 yards and Danny Villanueva kicked a nine-yard field goal, his fourth of the day, to set the final score with just 22 seconds left.

Thus, the Packers suffered their special committee of the Baseball third loss and dropped a full game behind the leading Baltimore Orioles, who were idle. Green Bay teammates on the youthful Orioles now has 5-3, Baltimore 6-2. It was also, first baseman Jim Gentile back to work for the Packers to-day. They invade Detroit Thanks-giving Day in search of their sixth win.

Every Sin
The Packers committed every sin in the football book, getting a position in the field goal and a punt blocked and losing the ball three times on fumbles and twice on pass interceptions. Those were seven misdeeds and the Rams followed his first full year in the majors.

Co-Champions Iowa, Gophers Wait for Bid

Either Co-Titlist Would Agree to Play in Rose Bowl

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Iowa and Minnesota, Big Ten football co-champions, are sitting, waiting and hoping for a Rose Bowl bid.

Minnesota gained a share of the conference title by whipping Wisconsin, 26-7, Saturday while Iowa ended a highly successful season with a 28-0 victory over Notre Dame.

Both are logical choices and either Iowa or Minnesota would readily accept to play Jan. 2 if invited.

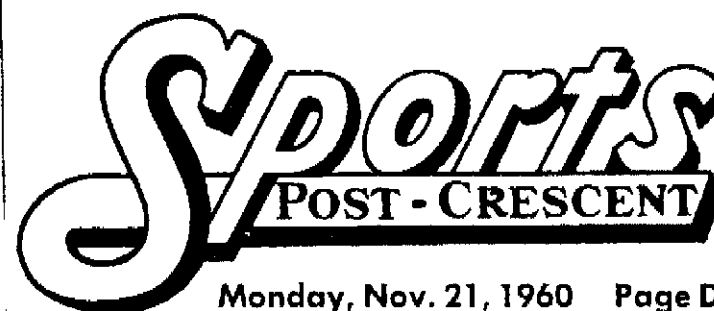

Minnesota Coach Murray Warmath made it known that he feels his team should get the bid. "We made ourselves eligible," he said. "Now it is in somebody else's hands. I am sure the kids want to go."

No Feelers
Forest Evashevski, who has resigned as coach to take over as athletic director at Iowa, said he thinks the West Coast wants a Big Ten team in the Rose Bowl but added that no feelers have been put out.

Russler Leads Indians Past Bulldogs, 67-54

Superior Height
Helps Oshkosh Win Opener

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

NEW LONDON — The taller Oshkosh Indians dominated the action from the first quarter to down the New London Bulldogs, 67-54, here Saturday night in the non-conference opener at Washington High School.

The visitors gained a 11-9 lead at the end of a slow first quarter before blasting out with a 23-point second stanza attack. Fred Russler, top Oshkosh scorer, netted 10 of his 23 points during the second quarter.

The Oshkosh defense held the Bulldogs to 15 points during the second quarter to give the Indians a 10-point lead at the half.

New London's best quarter was the third when New London scored 15 points and held the Indians to 13.

The Oshkosh offense jelled again in the final quarter with a 20-point attack and the New Londoners added another 15.

Although the visitors held a height advantage, New London claimed an almost even share of the rebounds. The added height, however, was used to advantage by the visitors' defensive pattern. Ray Werner was runner-up for scoring honors for Oshkosh with 18 points on six baskets and six free throws.

Sturdy Mike Herres led a well-balanced Bulldog scoring attack with 13 points. Dick Emerich had 12 points, Dave Emerich 10. In the free throw department, Oshkosh connected with 15 out of 25, while New London had only eight out of 20.

Packers Offer Proof Mistakes are Fatal In Loss to Rams

Waterfield Says
Bays Looked Ahead To Lions' Game

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Green Bay Packers offered additional proof today that mistakes are fatal in the rugged National Football League.

The Packers played a game of "give-away" Sunday as the Los Angeles Rams capitalized on seven Green Bay misuses for a 33-31 upset before a stunned crowd of 35,763 at Milwaukee's County Stadium.

The Rams cashed in on three intercepted recoveries, a pair of intercepted passes, a blocked field goal attempt and a blocked punt in handing the Packers' championship hopes a crushing blow.

The errant play cost Green Bay a chance to move into a tie for first place in the Western Division with the Baltimore Colts, who were idle. The Colts, with a 6-2 record, are a full game ahead of the Packers, who have a 5-3 mark.

We Made Mistakes
"You can't make mistakes in this league and win," Green Bay Coach Vince Lombardi said. "The Rams took advantage. We made the mistakes. They cashed in." Ignoring the blocked field goal attempt and punt, Lombardi added:

"We were not ready to play today. We gave up the ball five times. That's five times too many."

The Packers jumped off to a 10-0 lead and then fell apart. Los Angeles surged into a 20-10 halftime lead and added 10 more points after the intermission before Green Bay could get untracked.

With Tom Moore, a rookie back from Vanderbilt, sparking the attack, the Packers staged a tremendous rally. Moore raced 59 yards for one touchdown, and Paul Hornung passed 18 yards to Boyd Dowler for another. Hornung then cracked two yards for a score and booted the Packers into a 31-30 advantage.

'Goat' Rule
Despite his output, Hornung had to settle for a share of the "goat" role. He missed a 22-yard field goal attempt with 4:44 left and later fumbled to give Los Angeles the ball on its 40. The Rams then marched downfield to set up Danny Villanueva for a nine-yard field goal—his fourth of the game—with just 22 seconds remaining.

"It looks as if we caught the Packers looking ahead to their Thanksgiving Day game with Detroit," Los Angeles coach Bob Waterfield said after the Rams pushed their record to 3-5-1.

"The Packers are as good as any team we've played," Waterfield added. "They're every bit as good as the Colts. The Colts don't have the runners Green Bay has. But the Packers don't have a (Johnny) Unitas, a Ray Berry and a Lenny Moore."

Scheffing Named Tigers' Manager

DETROIT (AP) — Bob Scheffing, ex-major league catcher and manager of the Chicago Cubs for three seasons, today was named to manage the Detroit Tigers.

The 45-year-old former backstop for the Cubs, St. Louis Cardinals and Cincinnati Reds agreed to a reported $35,000 salary.

The signing of Scheffing ended a long search by the Tigers for a successor to Joe Gordon, now manager of the Kansas City Athletics. Scheffing is the eighth Detroit manager in 10 years.

Both Benches Empty as Lions, Bears Join in Free-for-All

CHICAGO (AP) — Nobody knows how it started and nobody was declared the winner but the Chicago Bears and Detroit Lions put on one of the dandiest free-for-all fights seen in these parts in a long time.

Incidental to the melee was the fact that the Bears won 28-7, kept alive their slim hopes for the Western Division title in the National Football League.

With a little more than a minute left to play, the Bears punted to Detroit and Terry Barr was brought down near the Lions' bench.

One fight broke out in front of the Detroit bench between a couple of unidentified gladiators. On the other side of the field half-Maher, "From then on I was just back Bruce Maher of the Lions and kicking specialist John Aveni. It was thought that everyone on of the Bears were going at it but good.

Benches Empty
Suddenly both benches emptied case. on the field. Players were swinging, kicking, jumping on each other and in some cases chasing one another to the delight of the crowd of 46,267 at Wrigley Field. Before order could be restored, was going on."

The Green Bay Packers' Tom Moore (25) starts upfield for a second-quarter gain against Los Angeles Sunday in Milwaukee County Stadium. Providing the interference are guards Jerry Karamer (64) and Fred Thurston (63). Moore later broke away for a 59-yard touchdown run. The Rams, however, won 33-31.

gave the Rams a last-ditch chance.

The Packers got off to a 10-0 lead on Hornung's field goal and two-yard TD plunge. But from that point early in the first quarter until midway in the third period, the Rams piled up a 30-10 lead on Bill Wade's 17-yard TD pass to Del Shofner, field goals of 23 and 17 yards by Villanueva, Wade's nine-yard TD pass to Red Phillips for a 20-10 halftime lead. Wade's 41-yard TD pass to Phillips and Villanueva's 31-yard field goal.

The score was 30 to 10 and six minutes left in the third quarter when the Packers went to work with Tom Moore, who had replaced the injured Jim Taylor, setting off the spark.

Quarterback Bart Starr pieced together the 21 points on 17 plays, including the vital extra point kicks by Hornung.

The first went 80 yards in four plays, with Moore going the final 60 on a digging-and-stepping-away run around left end. Starr set up the run with two short passes to Hornung and Max McGee on the left side. That made it 30-17.

The second went 55 yards in five plays, with Moore getting 28 yards in two trips, and Hornung hurling an 18-yard pass to Boyd Dowler for the TD. It was 30-24.

The third went 50 yards in five plays and the long gainers were 10 by Moore and a 33-yard Starr to Hornung pass, with Hornung plunging two for the TD. His crucial point after made it 31-30.

Fourth Drive

The Packers teed off on a fourth drive, chiefly on Starr's 24-yard pass to McGee, but the drive stalled on the 15 and Hornung was wide to the right on his field goal.

And there was a fifth drive, starting on the Ram 40. On the second play Hornung fumbled a 2.15 left.

Willie Deweall hauled in a 40-yard short of a first down on the Ram 31 and Charley Britt yard touchdown pitch from Zeke recovered. The Rams went on from there, getting the winning field goal in nine plays.

The Packers seemingly lost the game in the first two and a half quarters — a period in which they scored but 10 points and the skins (1-5-2) with touchdown one TD was furnished by defense. Sonny Handle, the Cards' 5-4 and recovered a fumble on the Ram 2 for Hornung's first TD in the first quarter.

The Rams made only eight first downs and 119 yards in the first half but then stacked up 265 yards and 12 first downs in the second to produce the fireworks. Green Bay outyarded LA 394 to 250 and had a first down edge 20-12.

Moore, shifting to fullback, rolled up 105 yards in 11 carries and sparked the big comeback. Taylor started and added up 35 yards before his injured leg bogged him down. Hornung, besides his 19 points on two touchdowns, a field goal and four extra points, carried 16 times for 47 yards, passed for a touchdown and caught two passes for 45 yards. Paul now has 119 points — just 19 short of tying Don Hutson's record 138.

Starr, who developed a charley horse along the way, finished with 10 completions in 19 attempts for 163 yards and one interception. Lamar McHan took over the QB slot just before the half and started the second half. He had one interception and no completions in three passes before Starr returned to start the triple-TD program.

The Packer defense held the Rams down to 73 yards rushing but one run broke the Bay back — Jon Arnett's 22-yard scamper to set up the winning field goal.

took an early lead on Jor Moorrtson's one-yard plunge and Pat Summerall's 26-yard field goal. The Eagles tied it on a 35-yard scoring pitch from Norm Van Brocklin to Tommy McDonald and Bobby Walston's 12-yard field goal.

Then Jim Carr picked up a fumble by New York's Mel Tripitt with 2:45 minutes left and stunned a Yankee Stadium crowd of 63,571 by rambling 36 yards for a touchdown.

The Browns (5-3) were beaten by the clock, winding up on the Pittsburgh 9 when time ran out after Tom Tracy's four-yard touchdown jaunt around end gave starting on the Ram 40. On the second play Hornung fumbled a 2.15 left.

Willie Deweall hauled in a 40-yard short of a first down on the Ram 31 and Charley Britt yard touchdown pitch from Zeke recovered. The Rams went on from there, getting the winning field goal in nine plays.

Talk about your sleepers—Houston's Jackie Lee, up to now a quarterback in name only, could be named Sleeper of the Year after his performance Sunday.

The Oilers' rookie signal-caller had appeared only briefly in one American Football League game until he tossed three touchdown passes, tied, then broke a league record in the process, and succeeded in sending Denver to its fourth straight loss 20-10.

In the only other AFL game Sunday, Buffalo slapped down Los Angeles 32-3. Friday night, Boston beat Dallas 42-14.

Lee, the top passer in the Missouri Valley Conference a year ago while playing for the University of Cincinnati, threw touchdown passes of 78, 92 and 73 yards as a replacement for injured George Blanda.

Until Sunday Lee had completed one pass in three attempts for ten yards against Los Angeles back on Sept. 18.

78-Yard Pass

His 78-yard TD pass to Billy Groman tied the league's mark for distance and his 92-yard toss to Groman broke it. He also hit Charley Hennigan with a 73-yard scoring toss. His three touchdown passes came in the first half to give the Eastern Division leaders a 20-3 advantage. Frank Tripucka's 26-yard pass to Ken Carpenter got Denver's touchdown and Gene Mingo kicked a 37-yard field goal.

Lee wound up with 6 completions in 13 tries for 281 yards, and had one intercepted. Tripucka had 26-32 for 268 yards.

The Bills, last in the East, intercepted five passes by LA quarterback Jack Kemp and scored twice after recovering fumbles.

One of the interceptions was by Gene Matson, who ran 20 yards for a TD. Tom O'Connell passed to Richie Lucas for one score and Johnny Green threw for two more, one to Wray Carlton who also scored on a 1-yard huck.

Ben Agajanian's 31-yard field goal was Los Angeles' only score.

any other post-season game. A Rose Bowl contract between the Big Ten and the West Coast was killed this year by a 5-5 vote against renewal.

Ironically, Minnesota, one of the schools vying against renewal, probably would have received the bid if the pact had been extended.

Iowa has sent teams to Pasadena in the past and the deciding factor would have been Minnesota's 27-10 triumph over the Hawkeyes.

By rights, Minnesota should have won the Big Ten championship all alone if it had not been for a conference penalty against Indiana in which the Hoosiers' games did not count.

Iowa did not play Indiana but Minnesota defeated the Hoosiers and would have had a 6-1 record had Indiana games counted to Iowa's 5-1 mark.

In closing the season Saturday, Northwestern defeated Illinois 14-7. Purdue blizzarded Indiana 35-6. Ohio State edged Michigan 7-0 and Michigan State trounced Detroit 43-15.

It was the usual topsy-turvy season indicative of Big Ten positions in 13 tries for 281 yards, and had one intercepted. Tripucka had 26-32 for 268 yards.

The Bills, last in the East, intercepted five passes by LA quarterback Jack Kemp and scored twice after recovering fumbles.

One of the interceptions was by Gene Matson, who ran 20 yards for a TD. Tom O'Connell passed to Richie Lucas for one score and Johnny Green threw for two more, one to Wray Carlton who also scored on a 1-yard huck.

Weather Mild Kill Is Smallest in Years After First Two Days of Deer Season

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The first two days of Wisconsin's deer hunting season apparently were a flop for thousands of the state's hunters. Most of the hunters were back home today empty handed.

The opening brought weather that was more like that at the start of the fishing season. The weather was mild, water was high in the streams, rivers and swamps. The woods and fields were noisy—and there was no snow. The temperature was in the high 30s or low 40s in most parts of the state.

A fly rod probably could have been used to better advantage than a 30-30 rifle.

As a result the kill was reported as the smallest in years for the first two days of the season. Hunting began at 6:24 a.m. Saturday and continues, in many parts of the state, through next Sunday. It closes in a few southern Wisconsin counties today.

Pressure Down

Hunting pressure was down at least 25 per cent from last year for the opening day, a Conservation Department official reported. The pressure Sunday followed a similar pattern, according to spot checks made in various parts of the state.

The kill on the opening day was reported at from 25 to 50 per cent less than on the first day a year ago.

Art Rudolph, a resort owner and guide at Carter in Forest County, expressed the opinion of many of the northwoods people when he said:

"There may be some deer in the woods, but we couldn't find them. It's so noisy that a deer can hear you a half mile away. It also appears that deer are more scarce than they were a year ago."

Baylor Sets Cow Palace Scoring Mark

Elvin Baylor, the phenomenal sharpshooter of the Los Angeles Lakers, seems intent on setting some sort of record almost every time he goes on the floor for a National Basketball Association game.

Last week he set a league record with 71 points against the New York Knickerbockers. Sunday night he set a mark for the San Francisco Cow Palace by registering 52 points as the Lakers downed the Detroit Pistons 145-131 in the game on a neutral floor.

In the other NBA game on Sunday's schedule the Boston Celtics crept within six percentage points of the Philadelphia Warriors, leaders of the Eastern Division, by defeating the Cincinnati Royals 120-103.

Demise of Missouri Brings on Scramble for College Grid Crown

Unbeaten Ole Miss, Mississippi State Meet in Finale

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A mad scramble for the national college football championship suddenly developed today out of the demise of Missouri, with more than a half-dozen teams remaining in the running for the coveted title.

Last week Missouri had one foot in the throne room door. The Tigers had rampaged through nine opponents and needed only to get past twice-beaten Kansas to take the crown.

But Kansas plasters the Tigers 23-7. So Missouri finished with a 9-1 record. So did Washington, Iowa showed 8-1 as did Minnesota, Navy and Auburn. Mississippi, the only one of the group that has not been defeated has an 8-0-1 record with one game to go.

No. 2 in The Associated Press poll last week behind Missouri and looked powerful in blanketing Notre Dame, 28-0.

Whip Wisconsin

Head Injury Puts Gifford In Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)—Frank Gifford, New York Giants ace half-back, suffered a deep concussion and a bad bruise on the back of the head in a losing cause against the Philadelphia Eagles Sunday.

"He's pretty well banged up," said club physician Dr. Francis Sweeney on examining Gifford at the hospital where he was taken after being tackled hard by Chuck Bednarik near the end of the game.

"The wet X-rays show no fracture and he's conscious although his memory is hazy," Dr. Sweeney added. "We'll keep him here at least 48 hours. But it is too early to say about next Sunday's game."

(Indiana conference games do not count; ties count 1/2 game won, 1/2 game lost.)

MADISON (AP)—Wisconsin's football team won the Big Ten championship last year but finished in the cellar in the conference this year. Despite this fact, Coach Mill Bruhn has no regrets.

"Under the circumstances," said Bruhn, "I have no regrets about how the season went. We had to gain experience, and it may have been painful at times, but I think we played a lot of football and the experience should do us a lot of good."

The Badgers dropped their final game to Minnesota here Saturday 26-7 but the game was a lot closer than the score would indicate.

The Gophers jumped off to a 12-0 lead but the Badgers smashed back and cut the margin to 12-7 in the third period. The Badgers then came very close to moving out in front before they tired under the Gopher smashes and Minnesota went on to take the decision with a devastating attack.

Share of Title

Wisconsin wound up the season with a 2-5 Big Ten record and an overall mark of 4-5. The Gophers, in winning, gained a share in the Big Ten title with Iowa and a possible Rose Bowl bid.

The Badgers looked impressive in their early games with their sophomore-studded team but injuries to key men midway in the season ruined any chances of a big year.

Bruhn uncovered a great sophomore passing combination in quarterback Ron Miller and end Pat Richter and they clocked for early victories. Then Richter suffered a collarbone injury that put him out for the stretch games and Miller sprained both ankles.

Richter was unable to play the final four games and Miller was handicapped most of the time in the stretch run. As a result, the Badger fortunes declined rapidly.

Despite his injuries, Miller set a university record in total offense when he netted 78 yards by passing against Minnesota. He piled up 1,395 yards to better the school total offense record of 1,332 set by Jim Haluska in 1952.

Miller picked up 1,352 yards by passing but fell short of Haluska's record of 1,410 on aerial shots eight years ago.

Richter Injured

Richter had come close to setting a school record in yards gained by passes before he was injured.

Another standout in Wisconsin's losing campaign was co-captain Tom Wiesner, a pile-driving full-back who carried 89 times for 374 yards and grabbed 20 passes for scoring advance and Stephens ranked among the leaders in rush. Wisconsin smashed back in the second period and scored on a 15-yard pass play from Miller to end Hank Derleth. Erv Kunesch booted the extra point to make the score 12-7.

The Badgers outplayed the quarter. Sandy Stephens, the Gophers' rest of the second period and through most of the back, then capped a 51-yard move third before they were halted on by skirting eight yards for the nine on downs and had to touchdown. A few minutes later surrender the ball.

The Gophers launched a 58-yard drive. The Gophers added two touchdowns in the final period. Dave Mulholland ended a 65-yard drive on a scoring plunge from the four and five minutes later re-serve quarterback Larry Johnson rolled out to his left and turned the end for 18 yards and another score.

Canadiens, Leafs, Wings Share Lead

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National Hockey League lead was in a three-way tie today, with the Montreal Canadiens, the Toronto Maple Leafs and the Detroit Red Wings each credited with 24 points.

The Canadiens muffed their chance to hold their one-point margin when they battled the Chicago Black Hawks to a 1-1 tie. The deadlock left the Chicagoans only one point behind the trio of pacesetters.

The Red Wings defeated the last-place New York Rangers Sunday night 4-3 and the Leafs won over the Boston Bruins 3-2.

The Canadiens took a 1-0 lead late in the first period on Dick Moore's 19th goal of the season, but Eric Nesterenko squared the score at 16:17 of the second period and the rivals battled on even terms in the third.

It was the Black Hawks' 10th straight game in the Chicago Stadium without a defeat.

New Goalie Leads Bobcats To 3-1 Win

Bob Smith Makes 35 Saves in Victory Over Fort Francis

Post-Crescent News Service
GREEN BAY — Spectacular goal tending by newcomer Bob Smith preserved a 3-1 Bobcat victory over the Fort Francis Canadians before a crowd of 1,946 at the Arena Saturday night. It was an auspicious debut for the 22-year-old "lend-lease" goalie: Knights of the International League.

A cool customer under pressure, Smith kicked out 35 scoring bids, 17 of them in the first period, to enable the Cats to hang onto an early lead. It was a rugged defensive game on both sides.

The Cats grabbed a two-goal jump in less than four minutes of play, but the rest of the opening session belonged to the visitors, who swept down ice repeatedly, only to have one thrust after another blunted by Smith's alert and agile goal tending.

Even the Canadian's lone score was a partial tribute to his skill. It came on a rebound after he had made a near miraculous stab and was sprawled helplessly on the ice.

Poole Scores
Jackie Poole sent the Bobcats into a quick lead at 1:04 of the opening period when he took a quick pass from Mike Horn and drilled the puck past Barefoot from a sharp angle. A little over two minutes later Mayasich beat the visiting goalie with a screened shot that Barefoot never saw coming. Ron Stenlund got the assist on the goal, which came at 3:17.

The Canadians seized the initiative and began peppering Smith. Bob kept kicking them away, however, until Larry Kronkile let fly with a blistering shot out of a melee in front of the Bobcat goal.

Smith made a desperate save but the puck bounced straight on to the stick of Jack Hazel who fired it over the prostrate goalie for Fort Francis' only tally.

The Cats added their final counter at 6:32 of the second period on a "quick opener." The defense smothered a Canadian thrust and Mayasich and Dier popped into the clear. Johnny's blast from about 30 feet out was blocked but Dick snared the rebound and rammed it home.

For the next 33½ minutes play swept up and down the ice with neither team making much impression on the other's aggressive defense.

Play was somewhat faster than Friday's season opener and, while rough, remarkably free of penalties. Each club spent 10 minutes in the cooler on five minor violations apiece.

Boy, 15, Seriously Hurt by Falling Backstop at UW

MADISON (AP) — Lorin Daggett, 15, of Madison, was injured seriously Saturday when struck on the head by a falling backstop that had been loosed by fans who rushed onto Camp Randall field at the conclusion of the Minnesota-Wisconsin football game.

The youth was taken to University Hospitals where attendants said late Sunday that his condition was satisfactory.

The fans tried to pull down the goal posts after Minnesota's 26-7 victory over the Badgers but found them set in concrete. Then they turned their attention to the backstop which supports a net to catch footballs kicked over the posts in practice.

The top of the backstop broke off and struck Daggett.

OUTDOORS IN WISCONSIN 'Facts' About Deer Seem to be Myths

BY CLARA HUSSONG

GREEN BAY — It may not be news to hunters, but it was when I found out about it — the size of the antlers and the number of points depend upon many factors, such as the deer's age, the quality and quantity of food, injury, hormone regulation, and heredity," according to the large doe just Missouri mammal book.

Hussong when we used to go archery deer hunting.

Ray and I were driving back to camp (near Atheistane in Marinette County) from the Goodman Park area. A good-sized deer with a rack of horns crossed the road in front of us. We stopped the car, and Ray took out his archery equipment and started out over the hill after the deer.

I walked down the road to the spot where the deer had crossed, and looked at the tracks. They were doe tracks, according to our way of thinking, toes close together and pointed. So we went back to camp and told the rest of our hunting party that we had seen a freak of nature — a doe with antlers.

Can Happen
(This happens too — but very rarely. Abnormal hormone secretions can cause antlers to grow on females, and some abnormal condition in males can cause a stunted growth of antlers.)

The larger, older deer have the wide-spaced toes, and the smaller, younger ones the close-together toes, apparently. Not being able to tell the sex by the years. Twin fawns are the rule tracks will be a disappointment to the many of us, non-hunters as well as hunters. This will hereafter be one of "nature's signs" and we won't be able to read.

My information on the unreliability of tracks in designating sex came from Charles and Elizabeth Schwartz's book "The Wild Mammals a year ago by the University of Missouri Press and the Missouri Conservation Department.

"The sex of a deer cannot be identified by its track because there is no difference between the size and shape of buck and doe hoofs," the authors say on Page 321. The Schwartzes are biologists on the staff of the Missouri Conservation Department.

The idea that you can tell the age of a buck by the number of points on its rack of antlers has been exploded long ago. "Both the size of the antlers and the number of points depend upon many factors, such as the deer's age, the quality and quantity of food, injury, hormone regulation, and heredity," according to the large doe just Missouri mammal book.

Fawn bucks in the first fall of a buck. That have buttons, which can often be felt better than seen. Occasional small spike may have broken through the skin even at that age. Yearling bucks may have just an unbranched spike, but more often they display more than one point.

Yearlings have been found with eight or 10 points. The Michigan Conservation Department found that in areas where deer food is plentiful, 95 per cent of the yearling bucks have a better than spike display. In food short areas, 70 per cent of the same age bucks have only spikes.

"Heredity plays its parts too, but experiments show that its effects are far overshadowed by the general physical condition," together and pointed. So we went according to the booklet, "Michigan White-tails."

How do you tell the age of a deer? By the teeth. A fawn has four "cheek teeth," an adult, six. As the deer grows older, age is estimated by the degree of wear the teeth show. A 10-year-old deer has worn its teeth almost down to the gums.

Old age does not bring about barren does, the Michigan Conservation Department says in the booklet. Captive does have borne smaller, younger ones the close-together toes, apparently. Not being able to tell the sex by the years. Twin fawns are the rule tracks will be a disappointment to the many of us, non-hunters as well as hunters. This will hereafter be one of "nature's signs" and we won't be able to read.

Ike Winding Up Vacation At Augusta

AUGUSTA, Ga., (AP) — President Eisenhower was reported considering today a one-day quail shooting trip as a windup to his two-week Georgia vacation.

The White House said the President had not yet firmly decided whether to accept an invitation to fly Tuesday to Albany, Ga., 250 miles southwest of Augusta, on the hunting expedition.

W. Alton Jones, board chairman of Cities Service Corp., has been urging Eisenhower to visit the Jones' Blue Hill plantation near Albany.

Eisenhower spent Sunday golfing and playing bridge at the Augusta National Golf Club with his friends. He left his secluded vacation headquarters Sunday night to put in a brief appearance at a party honoring his press secretary, James C. Hagerty, at the Richmond Hotel in downtown Augusta.

Earlier, he accepted the resignation of James D. Zellerbach, San Francisco industrialist, as U.S. ambassador to Italy.

NEW WORLDS UNFOLD...

There is only one occasion when the word "glamorous" can be used to describe such things as a set of socket wrenches, youthful fingers black with grease, a limp bicycle chain, and a deflated tire. But a boy's first adventure as a mechanic is an occasion when these things hold more glamour for him than a yardful of pretty little girls playing next door. Whether its his bicycle now, or his first car later on, the Family Want Ad pages of The Post-Crescent offer him and his parents a unique market place. To buy or sell anything with wheels, the Family Want Ad pages provide a quick, easy solution to the problem. If he wants to buy another bike, or sell the one he has, turn to the Want Ads for help.

Gogi Grant Has Daring Act, She Just Sings

Girl With Big Voice Belts It Out
Concert Style to Pleased Patrons

BY HUGH A. MULLIGAN
AP Newswriter

Gogi Grant is a wisp of a lass with an incredibly big voice and a steadily growing following of fans. Some critics regard her as the best blues singer since Helen Morgan, a judgment that was enhanced several years ago when her voice was chosen to dub the Helen Morgan songs in the film biography of the late great flame of the '30s.

Recently Miss Grant, who records for Liberty Records, made her New York supper club debut and managed to amaze the critics and electrify the audience with a very daring act.

The act was daring in that throughout her whole hour-long presentation Gogi neither did a strip tease, nor was tossed around by chorus boys, nor did she venture into the audience to kiss bald men on the dome or trade quips with the credit card customers.

Just Stands There

All she did was just stand there, in very modest décolletage, and sing. Most of the time, she ignored the microphone and belted it out concert style without benefit of gimmicks, echo chambers, trick arrangements or naughty lyrics.

The songs ranged from "The Wayward Wind" and "Suddenly, There's a Valley," her million selling pops records, to an Israeli folk song, a medley of Helen Morgan songs and an exquisitely sensitive rendition of "The Village of St. Bernadette."

Changes Mood
This daring act reached its daring climax when Gogi dared to wind up with a sighing, sentimental ballad that left the patrons in awed silence, prisoners of her lingering high notes, instead of winding up with a belting jazz number that would have had them whistling and clapping and pounding the table for more. Gogi, who can dance with the best of them, chose mood over mayhem and won out in the end.

Her enthusiastic reception offered

No Plans for Film Story on Postwar GI

Audie Murphy Thinks
'Way Back' Better Than His Biography

BY BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"After the war, they took Army dogs and rehabilitated them for civilian life. But they turned soldiers into civilians immediately and let 'em sink or swim."

This was an ex-soldier talking. Not just any ex-soldier, but Audie Murphy, who collected more medals than any GI in World War II.

"I can remember back in North Africa when we were trained to a razor's edge," he said. "We were mean and raw. They told us to be ready to kill everyone in sight when we invaded Sicily—men, women and children. They thought that might be the only way we could take the island."

"You can't just toss that training aside overnight. I still had some of it when I came here to Hollywood. I remember one night at a party when I got in a beef with Larry Tierney. If somebody hadn't stopped me, I would have very happily killed him."

Basis of Story

Audie's postwar adventures form the basis of a screen story, "The Way Back," written by his good friend Spec McClure. Universal owns it but has no plans to film it. This despite the fact that Audie's war biography, "To Hell and Back," was made for $1,200,000 and has earned $10 million.

"They're afraid of the cost," Audie explained. "It would run about twice what a cheap picture would cost. The studio thinks there is room in today's market only for cheap pictures or super-specials."

"I think they're wrong. To me, the postwar story is more interesting than 'To Hell and Back' (which he terms a Western with uniforms). I'd like to buy it from them and make it with my own company."

Audie's current chore is a feature called "Posse From Hell." It's a Western, natch, and that's unusual, too. Audie is the only star left who is still making Westerns for theaters.

"I think there's still a market for them," he remarked. "Westerns are still a good escape from everyday life, and we can give 'em color and scenery that they can't get on TV. And Westerns are still steady sellers in Europe and Japan, where they don't get so much TV."

Jersey 'Devil' Lives in Myth Along Seaboard

BY JOHN KOLESAR

NEW YORK (AP)—The screams of a green and white, kangaroo-like animal, with wings. The curtain opened, the beast leaped at them and the place cleared out for the next batch of customers.

The beast was a kangaroo — purchased in Buffalo N.Y.—painted green and white and harnessed with bronze wings. The leap was prompted by a small boy with a stick.

Jefferies himself confessed his part in the whole thing in 1929. But the devil, it seems, is immortal.

Residents recently reported hearing screams and seeing footprints around Dorothy. Police say it was only Halloween pranks. But local folk know better—it was the Jersey Devil, they say.

This Makes News
DUNCAN, Okla. (AP)—A telephone pole pulled a switch and hit a car. It went like this: A truck overturned, its cargo snagging telephone lines. The weight of the lines and the cargo broke a utility pole which fell into a passing auto.

Since then, it supposedly has been seen a number of times. What did the devil look like? It was cloven-hoofed, long-tailed, with the head of a collie dog, the face of a horse, the body of a kangaroo, the wings of a bat, half-human, half-animal. Sometimes it had 11 feet and exhaled fire and smoke.

That may be a little difficult to visualize, but you know how eyewitnesses are about these things. So much for the myth.

How about the truth? Prof. Curtis D. MacDougall, of the journalism school at Northwestern University, seems to have the most logical explanation.

Book of Hoaxes
He says the Jersey Devil is the concoction of Norman Jefferies, a press agent for C. A. Brandenburg's Museum in Philadelphia in 1906.

MacDougall, in his book of hoaxes, says Jefferies ran across the story of Mrs. Leeds in an old book and decided to use it in a publicity stunt.

Since Jefferies' past stunts put him in low repute with Philadelphia newsmen, he got a story printed in a little South Jersey paper.

The story said a farmer spotted the devil near his barn. Next thing, reporters descended, plaster casts were made of footprints, prominent South Jersey citizens began stumbling home after encounters with the beast, and women were found in hysterics on lonely roads.

Then Jefferies topped the whole thing by arranging capture of the beast in Hunting Park, Philadelphia, and putting it on exhibition at, by coincidence, the museum. The museum's customers got

BY CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP)—Television Sunday atoned for many of its recent programming sins. First there was a two-hour version of "Macbeth" on NBC. And then, after a two-hour interval to think it over, there was Harry Belafonte's "New York 19," on CBS. Both were magnificent programs of widely divergent character.

The Hall of Fame version of the Shakespearean tragedy was action-filled and gory, of course, but the skillful cast—particularly Maurice Evans and Dame Judith Anderson—extracted every bit of dramatic juice from their rich roles.

Even though the battle sequences seemed a little phony, the authentic Scottish exteriors added much to the presentation. It was a memorable program. My viewing companion, watching as a homework assignment from her high school English course, enjoyed every moment.

Music-Filled
Belafonte's music-filled hour was an impeccable program. It had imaginative photography, great humor, exciting dancing and, as to be expected, fine singing. It was also daring to attempt to bring together all the people—of many colors and creeds—living in one Manhattan postal district. Belafonte himself departed from his usual type of song to do a bright comedy number with songs from "My Fair Lady," and in another imaginative number, romp with a playground full of youngsters. They were two high spots in a program full of them. It will be hard to match soon again two such treats in one evening.

Moroccan King Says U.N. Needed in Algeria

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—King Mohammed V of Morocco declared Friday United Nations intervention is the only way to solve the six-year-old Algerian nationalist rebellion.

The monarch made this statement in a speech marking the 33rd anniversary of his accession to the throne.

For the first time at such a ceremony, a Algerian rebel envoy Twefik Mostafai sat in the diplomatic gallery along with—but not alongside—French Ambassador Roger Seydoux. Two Algerian rebel officials sat with Moroccan government ministers in a gallery facing the king.

Mohammed said he was disappointed at the continuation of the Algerian conflict despite what he called "the willingness of the Algerians to settle the war by negotiations."

In another controlled five-year experiment a similar drug brought significant improvement in cancers of the lung, breast, prostate and ovary, he said.

Stock Market Settles Down After Election

Business, Consumer Forces to Play Big Role in Its Future

BY SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market is over its brief election fling and is back trying to guess what business will be like when spring comes.

What the new administration will want to do and what it actually will do will play a part. But the market seems to be saying that a greater role will be taken by business and consumer forces. What the majority now think, right or wrong, is that the forces pulling the economy down in the last six months or so will have lost their strength in another six and that spring or maybe summer will find times generally on the up-grade.

What optimism this generates among stock traders is pretty well tempered just now by the prospect of continued dragging in many lines for the immediate future. And for the long run there is the growing tendency of consumers to spend more of their money for services of all kinds and less proportionately for the goods that factories turn out.

Mild Fling
The stock market's post-election fling was relatively mild. For two weeks before stock prices had been rising most of the time.

On the day before the polling the Associated Press 60-stock price index stood at 211.8. The day after the election it rose to 212.4 and the next day, Nov. 10, to 215.5. Then it backed away and alternately rose and fell, until on Nov. 18, after eight days of post-election trading, it closed at 214.3.

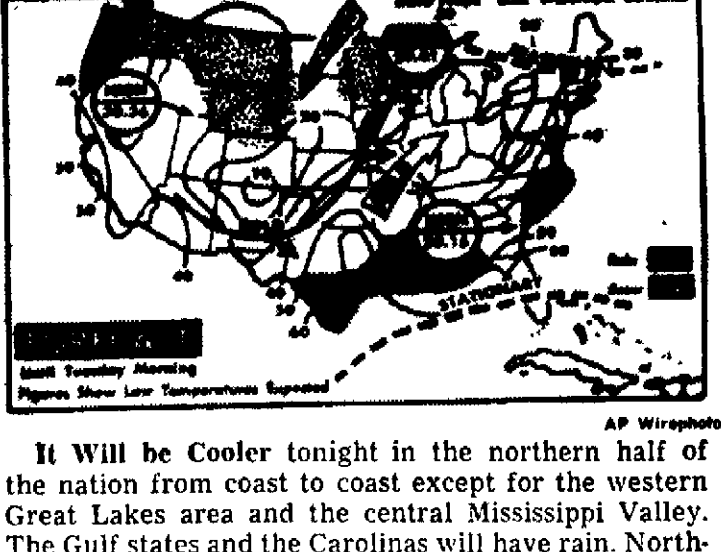

On a chart the whole process would even, out pretty much along the rising line it had been taking before the voters acted.

The Dow-Jones industrial index of 30 stocks followed much the same course. On Nov. 7 it was 597.63, Nov. 9 it rose to 602.25, but a high of 612.01 Nov. 10 fell back and closed last week at 603.5.

Decline Slight
Some of the mildness of the reaction to Sen. Kennedy's election is likely due to uncertainty as to just what he will actually propose and, more important, just how he'll propose to go about it. And there's considerable doubt that the strong conservative bloc in

Share Prices Up Evenly

Trading in Early Afternoon Fairly Active on Exchange

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market managed enough strength to bring it to an irregularly higher level in fairly active trading early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose .30 to 214.60 with the industrials up .20, the rails up .30 and the utilities up .10.

Gains and losses of fractions to a point were the general rule for most key stocks. A scattering of more substantial gains helped give the average a higher tone.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 1.37 at 604.99.

Three Hurt in Auto Crash on Highway 41

Three men were taken to Theda Clark Hospital, Neenah, after a two-car collision on Highway 41 about seven miles north of Oshkosh early this afternoon.

consider authorizing them. He suggested continuing the Eau Claire project, making a decision on the patrol headquarters later.

"If you build one patrol building," he said, "You have to build six."

The patrol maintains district headquarters in Eau Claire, Madison, Waubesa, Fond du Lac, Schofield, and Rice Lake.

Other commission members agreed with Nelson. Assemblyman Fred Riser D-Madison, contended arrangements for financing the structures with highway funds should be cleared up before any money is spent planning them.

The highway fund is used to underwrite patrol costs, including headquarters space rentals.

'Every No-Accident Day One Of Thanksgiving,' Says Karns

"Let every no-accident day be a day of thanksgiving," Commissioner James Karns of the state motor vehicle department declared today.

"Thousands of really good drivers in our state can look back on 326 days of no-accident driving thus far in this 'leap year' of 1960," he said.

"For them, the driving privilege has been taken seriously, and they have proved themselves worthy in meeting the tests of varying road, weather and traffic conditions," he added.

Some Unfortunate
"Others, not so fortunate, became involved in accidents—some meeting their death, some being injured, some escaping harm but suffering damage to their vehicles and other property," the Commissioner pointed out.

"The Thanksgiving Day weekend ahead will be the occasion for many family gatherings around the festive board," Karns declared.

"We hope none of these get-togethers will be marred by absence of guests who fail to arrive because of a traffic tragedy," he added. "But holidays seem to be Death's favorite days for breaking that family circle."

Take Stock
The commissioner urged all holiday travelers to check that of themselves. "Take that car of yours before you start home-ward. Don't rush so fast that you speed your own death. Keep your mind on driving. On a long trip, stop for an occasional "rest break" and non-intoxicating beverage.

If snow storms develop, or if rain turns to sleet, be sure you have the foresight to carry a set of reinforced tire chains, ready for use when the going gets rough."

Karns concluded "Among those drivers who have had no acci-

Debate Plan For Patrol Buildings

MADISON (AP) —A proposal to build new headquarters buildings for each of the state's highway patrol districts received a cool reception from the Building Commission.

Ray Rothermel Jr., building coordinator, said the Wisconsin Motor Vehicle Department wants to construct the buildings, taking headquarters units out of rented quarters. He estimated the six structures would cost $1.2 million.

The patrol facilities were discussed during consideration of plans for a new state office building at Eau Claire. It is located on a site large enough to accommodate a patrol headquarters.

Gov. Gaylord Nelson, the commission's chairman, said he wanted a need for patrol buildings demonstrated before he would

YOUR HUNCH may be right!

Many investors hold on to a stock, even though they "have a feeling" that it might be better to sell. Sometimes this is due to inertia. But more often it's because they lack sufficient information on which to take positive action.

If you have any stocks in the doubtful class, get the latest facts. Our well informed registered representatives and our Investment Research Department will make them available.

'Confidence' Stands Between U. S. Fiscal Crisis, Stability

Ike Took Steps to Block Flow of Gold Out of Country

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nations of Western Europe now have it in their power to rock the American financial system any day in the week.

All that stands between crisis and stability is an intangible called "confidence" — confidence that the U. S. dollar will remain "as good as gold."

Foreign governments and their citizens own about $18 billion of Uncle Sam's money. Most of these dollars are owned by Western Europeans and are deposited or invested in the United States. Theoretically, all could be used to buy American gold.

If all were used for this purpose, the United States is the corner stone of the free world economy. There is only $18 billion of gold in the world. This doesn't mean, however, that the current anxiety over Uncle Sam's persistent loss of gold is misplaced. The simple fact is that foreigners could cause a major crisis merely by exchanging a relatively small proportion of their dollars for gold in the span of a few days.

Such a disaster is virtually impossible. For one thing, foreigners do so much business with the United States that they couldn't afford

Perhaps even a lesser amount would turn the tide. It is this possibility which last week prompted President Eisenhower to impose unprecedented restrictions on spending abroad under the military and foreign aid programs. His aim was to lessen the number of dollars moving

President Eisenhower last week ordered emergency action to stem the steady flow of American gold into foreign hands. Frank Cormier, experienced AP Treasury Department reporter and financial writer, assesses the scope of the problem in this first of three articles on the gold situation.

ing into foreign hands; dollars that could be used to buy American gold.

Since July 1, foreigners have been buying American gold at the rate of $3.8 billion a year. Since Aug. 1, they have been ordering at an annual pace of $4.1 billion. Since Sept. 1, the rate has risen to $4.7 billion. Since Oct. 1, the flow of bullion has hit a spectacular annual rate of $5.9 million.

Compare this buying with the remaining U. S. gold supply — $18 billion of which $11.5 billion must, by law, remain in government hands as backing for part of the money supply.

Good as Gold

It wouldn't take long to use up the cushion available for meeting foreign orders. And once Uncle Sam had to turn away customers, the dollar would no longer be as good as gold.

Of course, the buying rate of recent weeks may slacken and perhaps drop sharply.

The point is, however, that no one can foretell the future.

The ball arithmetic of the present situation already has caused some international uncertainly. Witness the frenzied speculation that gripped the London gold market last month.

At this point, large gold purchases over a short span of time would add to the existing uncertainty — would threaten to unleash forces that could shatter the free world's financial system.

Russia, fortunately, hasn't the dollars to attempt such a move. And why would friends ever do such a thing, especially since they would suffer, too, in the end?

Why did millions of solid American citizens run trembling to their banks after 1929?

Lost Confidence

Putting it plainly, they lost confidence in the banking system. It was to buttress confidence that Eisenhower acted last week. He wanted to show the world that the United States is aware of its problem and is not afraid to do something about it; that it will defend the free world's stake in the stability of the dollar.

Some believe the president's actions were too severe — that the cure will hurt more than the disease. However, the fact that such action was taken by a "lame duck" administration suggests the urgency with which the problem is viewed by Eisenhower and his secretary of the treasury, Robert B. Anderson.

Why couldn't they have waited nine more weeks for the inauguration of President-elect John F. Kennedy?

Some speculate that the actions were taken now because Eisenhower felt they would be necessary soon and feared a new administration might be reluctant to take potentially unpopular measures.

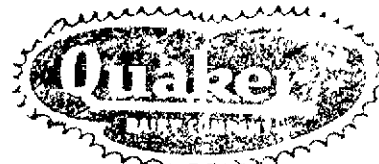

This was denied by an official who took part in the meeting at which Eisenhower made his decision. This man said there was only one reason for acting now: Inauguration Day might be too late.
